COUNTY SCHOOL DIRECTORS ON ANNUAL PICNIC

Several hundred school directors, bus drivers and their families were gathered today at the South Mountain fairgrounds for the annual school directors' convention-picnic and bus drivers' institute.

Speakers at the directors' convention this morning included R. Lloyd Jones and H. C. Fetterolf, of the state Department of Public Instruction, and Dr. William B. Grove, president of the state School Directors' association.

Speakers at the bus drivers' institute included Alfred S. Holt, of the Public Service institute; J. K. Bowman, of the state Department of Public Instruction, and Ivan J. Stehman, of the Public Service institute.

A program of entertainment is scheduled for this afternoon for the school directors and their families. At the same time David A. Oyler, local garageman; County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh, Cpl. Perry Mann of the state police and Assistant County Superintendent of Schools Charles I. Raffensperger are scheduled to address the bus drivers.

Luther M. Lady, president of the county Board of School Directors, presided at the luncheon session of the directors at noon today. Rowe M. Martin, vice president of the county board, presided at the morning meeting.

Thanks Those Who Helped On Vacation Plan

Mrs. Clark Smith, 49 West Lincoln avenue, chairman of the 1951 Adams county "Friendly Town" committee, today extended her thanks to all those who cooperated in providing two-week vacations for the 35 children from New York city and Brooklyn who came here under the auspices of the New York Herald Tribune's Fresh Air fund.

Vacation homes had been volunteered for 40 children, but only 35 were sent from the New York headquarters. They arrived on July 12, and returned to their homes on July 26, after being entertained in various homes throughout the county. Some of those who volunteered to provide the vacations entertained one child, while others had as many as three.

Mrs. Smith thanked particularly the women who opened their homes to the visitors for the two-week period, and members of her committee who assisted. The children came by train to Harrisburg, accompanied by a representative of the Fresh Air fund. They were met in Harrisburg by members of the local committee and brought to Gettysburg by chartered bus. The vacation "mothers" met their young guests at the Hotel Gettysburg and returned them there for the trip back to Harrisburg by bus.

BRITISH COUPLE VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. George Crandon, of Highbridge, Somerset, England, arrived Wednesday night to spend three months as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Timmins, Jr., 222 Buford avenue.

Mrs. Timmins is the former Miss Betty Crandon, who met her husband in England while he was serving in the U. S. army in World War II. She came to make her home in Gettysburg in April, 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. Crandon's first impressions of the United States were of the heat. They were met in New York city Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Timmins, after crossing the Atlantic on the Mauretania. It was much hotter in New York than at their home in England, they said.

Impressions of Gettysburg will have to wait until they have rested from their trip, Mrs. Crandon said.

Engagement

Rogers-Pecher

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Pecher, Fairfield R. D., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Teresa Virginia Pecher, to Thornton Eugene Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Rogers, Emmitsburg. Miss Pecher is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school, Emmitsburg, class of 1951. Mr. Rogers is associated with his father in the furniture business. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Karrasch took her basic training at Fort Lee, Virginia, and has been in the WAC for the past three months. She is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and was employed by the Blue Cross corporation of New York. She was a member of the YWCA of New York.

BALLOON FLIES HIGH OVER TOWN ON WEDNESDAY

A maverick weather balloon threatened to attract more attention than a softball game here Wednesday evening—but the threat lasted only a few moments. The game, between Stanton Legion and the Texas Lunch, at the time was too close for several hundred spectators to do more than glance at the balloon.

Thus Gettysburg viewed the mysterious silver ball which has been attracting attention from Cleveland to Hagerstown. Thousands of persons along the route between the two cities are reported by the Associated Press to have called newspaper offices and radio stations to ask the nature of the silver disk seen high in the sky. Gettysburgians glanced, noted, and went back to viewing the ball game.

Described as looking like "a silver dollar" the balloon was seen high in the western sky and seemed to be moving very slowly.

First sighted by an airline pilot over Cleveland early Wednesday the balloon was described as 150 to 200 feet in diameter and floating far above the 17,000 feet — the height of the plane at that time.

At Pittsburgh, army fliers found the silver disc at 46,000 feet. They determined then that it was a plastic weather balloon. It was last seen at dusk Wednesday night between Hagerstown and Baltimore. Weatherman said by today it should rise so high it will explode.

While local residents viewed the object most calmly, at Altoona Wednesday thousands gaped for three-hours watching its progress over the city.

2 SEMINARIANS CHAPLAINS NOW

Three young army officers, two graduates of Gettysburg Lutheran Theological seminary, became members of the Corps of Chaplains in an unusual ceremony at the post chapel at Fort Meade Wednesday.

The three are 2nd Lieut. John Louis Strube, Jr., 23, of Lansdowne; 2nd Lieut. John W. Hanks, 24, of Jeannette, Pa., and 1st. Lieut. James A. Allison, Jr., 26, of Draper, Va.

All were called to active duty with the army as reserves and all transferred into the Chaplains' Corps from other branches of the service. Strube and Hanks were promoted to first lieutenant, the lowest rank in the chaplaincy.

Strube and Hanks, classmates at the Lutheran Theological seminary in Gettysburg, were ordained as Lutheran ministers in May. Allison was ordained as a Presbyterian minister in April after graduation from the Princeton Theological seminary.

ASKS ALIMONY, COUNSEL FEES IN ACTION HERE

Petitions for alimony, counsel fees and costs, and for a bill of particulars and temporary stay of proceedings in the divorce action of Philip B. Sharpe, Emmitsburg R. D., Adams county, against Ethel Marie Sharpe, Osterville, Cape Cod, Mass., were filed today in the office of the prothonotary by the defendant in the action.

No Defense Funds

Mrs. Sharpe in her petition for alimony, counsel fees and expenses says that she now receives a support order from her husband for the support of herself and their two minor children, but does not have funds for a defense of the divorce action.

The petition claims that Mr. Sharpe earns in the neighborhood of $10,000 a year as a gun and ballistics expert.

Mrs. Sharpe further contends that the summons in the divorce action was filed on her by registered mail at Lincoln Park, Mich., June 13. She says she was recuperating from an automobile accident, and was unable to be in Gettysburg within the 20-day limit for filing her answer or to consult with an attorney. She was unable to reach Gettysburg until July 3, according to the petition.

JUICE FOR LEGISLATORS

FIND COUNTIAN DEAD IN BARN

William Brimer, 73, Cumberland township, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon in the barn at the Adams county home. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said death was caused by a heart attack.

Mr. Brimer had been helping to put hay in the barn at the county home during the morning and seemed to be in good health when he resumed the duties after lunch Wednesday afternoon. He was working in the mow. Other workmen bringing hay there at about 5:30 o'clock found him lifeless.

A son of the late Charles and Elizabeth Ferguson Brimer, of near Fairfield, he was the last member of his family.

Funeral services conducted by the local Eagles lodge were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Evergreen cemetery with the Rev. Harold V. March officiating at the graveside rites.

Will Replank And Paint County Bridge

The Adams county commissioners Wednesday afternoon inspected a bridge at the John Linn farm, Freedom township, and later employed William Rentsel, Iron Springs, to lay new planking on the floor of the structure and paint it.

A meeting of the Adams County Institution district was being held this morning at the county home, Harrisburg road, after which the commissioners will attend the annual school directors meeting and picnic at the South Mountain fairgrounds.

FILES ESTATE BOND

An administration bond in the estate of Sarah Baker, Hamilton township, who died July 9, has been filed in the office of the register and recorder by a son, George Baker, East Berlin. The petition gives the value of the estate as $1,000 personal property. Besides the son, there are three daughters, Mary Baker, East Berlin R. 3; Susanne Berkheimer, East Berlin R. 2, and Katie Moore, LaJunta, Colo.

Parade And Dedication Will Climax Five-Day Celebration

New Oxford's 64-year-old fire company will dedicate its new fire hall Saturday, August 11, with a parade, speeches and other festivities.

The company moved into its new 80 by 60 foot brick building six weeks ago, but postponed its carnival and dedication until finishing touches could be made to the structure.

In connection with the dedication, the firemen will hold a carnival from Tuesday, August 7, through Saturday, August 11. Entertainment scheduled for the festival include: August 7, 101 Ranch Boys; August 8, Three Wonder Cow Girls, television act from a Wheeling, W. Va., station; August 9, New Oxford high school band and fireworks; August 10, Dixie Play Boys; August 11, Doris and Her Pals, a dog act, fireworks, and music by Earl Phillips and the Buckboard Ramblers, of WGET.

The speaker for the dedicatory program has not been announced. The parade in connection with the dedication will move at 3 o'clock in the afternoon from the New Oxford high school and the dedication program will be held at the conclusion of the parade.

The New Oxford Fire company was founded January 14, 1887, with 30 members. Originally the company used a pumper and ladder truck drawn by hand. In more recent years the hand-drawn equipment has been replaced by Reo and Ford pumpers. Today the company has a membership of 275.

Incorporated In 1949

In 1949 the company incorporated and purchased the lot at North Bolton street and West Golden Lane where the new fire house has been constructed.

Of one story construction, the new building has a space 40 by 60 feet for the fire engines. At one side is a 20 by 50 meeting room and on the other, toilets, a utility room and modern kitchen have been installed. Hoffheins Brothers, Hanover, were the general contractors.

Officers of the company include Vernon G. Rife, president; Allen Brashears, vice president; Clair Mummert, secretary; Clare Lookenbill, treasurer; Bernard Robinson, financial treasurer; Eugene Overbaugh, chief; H. Bender Millar, first assistant; Bernard Robinson, second assistant; R. E. Crouse, Fred Klunk and Maurice Miller, trustees.

Birth Announcements

Born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hull, New Oxford R. 2, at the Hanover hospital, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Pohlman, New Oxford, announce the birth of a daughter Wednesday at the Warner hospital.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued at the court house Wednesday afternoon to Donald Blair Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Thomas, Aspers R. 1, and Miss Doris Geraldine Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Taylor, also of Aspers R. 1.

Chambers of commerce throughout the United States are being urged to join forces with General Lucius D. Clay and the Crusade for Freedom in fighting Soviet propaganda lies with the truth.

"The Kremlin world conspiracy will ultimately be destroyed more by force of ideas than by force of arms," said General Clay in commending to civic leaders the program of the Greenwood Plan committee of Greenwood, S. C.

Objective of the plan is to comb America's towns, cities, and rural areas for ideas on how best to spike Communist lies and promote world freedom and peace. Best ideas and suggestions received will be broadcast on Radio Free Europe programs to the 71,000,000 people imprisoned behind Stalin's Iron Curtain, Clay said.

It is true that we have had two wars since then, but the vital difference lies in the fact that we have formed the habit of spending more money each year than we take in, and some day that is going to bring us up short before the chasm of bankruptcy and chaos.

REUNION IS HELD

The third annual Henry and Mary Kimple family reunion was held Sunday at the Albert Kimple grove, Fairfield road. Lunch was served to more than 100 guests. Those present were from York, Hanover, Gettysburg, Fairfield, Chambersburg Fayetteville, Biglerville and Buchanan Valley. The oldest member of the clan present was 71, the youngest, six months. All former officers were re-elected. Games were played throughout the afternoon.

Woman Says She And Alger Hiss Worked For Communists In 1934

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — Hede Massing testified today she worked here in 1934 as a Soviet espionage agent and recruited Noel Field, then a State department official, into her "apparatus."

She also said she and Alger Hiss, another former State department official since convicted of perjury, competed for Field's services.

Field has disappeared behind the iron curtain. Mrs. Massing said that at the time she recruited him she believed he was employed in the State department's western European division.

Mrs. Massing, the ex-wife of Communist bail-jumper Gerhardt Eisler, appeared before the Senate's Internal Security subcommittee which is looking into any subversive influences on U.S. foreign policies.

Detailing her activities in Washington before the outbreak of World War II, Mrs. Massing said she also recruited the late Lawrence Duggan for her apparatus. She did not immediately give the year.

Duggan plunged to his death from a New York hotel room several years ago. She said at the time she knew him he was with the State department's Latin American division.

The Vienna-born witness testified she became a Communist in 1918, the year after she married Eisler, and remained one until 1938. She said she came to this country as an agent for the party in 1933.

"Did you succeed in recruiting Noel Field into your apparatus?" asked Robert Morris, the subcommittee counsel.

"Yes, I did," Mrs. Massing replied. She said it took her about three quarters of a year.

Mrs. Massing said she told Field that fascism was a menace to the world; that he, in his "privileged position," could furnish "documents and materials" to aid in the fight against it.

Bogus Civil War Vet Baffles Doctors With "Heart Attack"

Reno, Nev., Aug. 2 (AP)—A weather-beaten and bearded old man with a genius for faking heart attacks has made a sucker of hospitals across the nation, the Veterans Administration here reported today.

Manager Edward F. Reed of the Reno V.A. center ordered an investigation after a man who identified himself as Lt. John N. Boyer, 104, a "veteran of the Civil war," staged a "collapse" in public here July 17. The Veterans Administration gave him hospital care.

Files sent from V.A. headquarters in Washington showed, however, that Boyer's name was actually Walter Engle Urwiler and that he was 69, not 104. He has used about 40 other aliases too, the report said.

But Boyer, who told doctors he had hitchhiked from an old soldiers' home in San Diego and that he had served with the Pennsylvania volunteers, had disappeared after receiving expensive treatment —all free of charge.

Treatment included private nurses and oxygen tents. Boyer checked out of the hospital last Sunday after V.A. officials discovered he was not on the list of surviving Civil war veterans. They had moved him to a less luxurious ward.

Sunday night a man who said he was Robert Larson of Chicago, also "104," appeared in Susanville, Calif., 90 miles north of Reno, and "suffered a heart attack." He was given a private room and special attention at the Susanville hospital.

V.A. records attribute Urwiler's ability to convince doctors he is dying of heart failure to a weird "fluttering diaphragm." They say he can accelerate his heart action to 800 beats a minute.

V.A. officials said no action is planned against Urwiler.

Peace Negotiators Reject Proposed Buffer Zones In Effort To Stop War In Korea

U.N. Advance Headquarters, Korea, Aug. 2 (AP)—United Nations and Communist spokesmen reported that opposing cease-fire teams at Kaesong today rejected the armistice buffer zones proposed by each other.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief U.N. delegate, told the Reds the Allies must hold a defensible line across Korea, such as the Allies propose, during a truce because of the possibility "of an armistice violation by the other side."

The Red Peiping radio reported the chief Communist delegate, Lt. Gen. Nam Il, "repudiated the buffer zone" proposed by Joy "deep across the 38th Parallel."

No Compromise Foreseen

There was no indication of what the next move would be in the face of apparent flat rejections by both sides. Neither has hinted at compromise.

It was the seventh successive session in which negotiators remained deadlocked on where to draw the armistice line.

They will try again tomorrow despite unswerving positions expressed in Washington and Pyongyang, the North Korean capital. The next meeting is scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday (8 p.m., Thursday, EST).

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, U.N. spokesman, quoted Admiral Joy as telling Red negotiators at Kaesong:

"The United Nations command has no intention of violating the military armistice agreed upon, but neither will the U.N. command place itself in an indefensible position in the event of an armistice violation by the other side."

Read Prepared Answers

Nuckols said Joy read this prepared statement in response to "a final question" by North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il, head of the Red delegation.

Nuckols did not disclose the nature of this final question. But it was presumed here that the North Korean had asked something like the following question:

"If you sincerely desire peace, and intend to observe the armistice, why are you talking about defensible positions?"

Nuckols said the question had been anticipated, and the answer prepared in advance.

The Pyongyang radio gave no indication that North Koreans would compromise. It said the U.N. demand for a cease-fire along present battle lines, most of which run through North Korea, was totally unacceptable.

Fix Allied Line

However, the Pyongyang radio on two previous occasions has taken an uncompromising stand on controversial—but much less important—questions, on which the Red negotiators subsequently gave in.

Pyongyang said the U.N. delegation was insisting on a demarcation line extending from Kosong on the eastern coast to the eastern tip of the Ongjin peninsula on the western coast.

Kosong is 47 miles miles north of the 38th Parallel. The Ongjin peninsula starts at the parallel.

The proposed Allied defense line never has been publicly announced in precise detail.

Guides Watch Helplessly As Girl, 18, Freezes

Milan, Italy, Aug. 2 (AP)—The newspaper Corriere Lombardo told today how Alpine guides watched helplessly while an 18-year-old girl slowly froze to death in the crevasse of a glacier where she fell Sunday.

The girl, Irene Della Cagnoletta, slipped into a narrow cleft in the Vetina glacier near Sondrio, north of Milan. She was not seriously injured and her cries for help were heard by the guides.

As the guides struggled to reach her, icy water seeped around her and slowly froze.

When one guide finally made his way down the crevasse to tie a rope around the girl she already was dead.

Not until yesterday were they able to free the girl from her icy grave and bring her to the surface.

WIDE VARIETY OF HATS APPEAR AT ANNUAL SHOW

Hats of all sizes, shapes and forms were displayed at the two playgrounds Wednesday night for the annual hat show sponsored by the local Recreation association.

And judging by some of the entries, those who complain about the women's hats of the present generation just "ain't seen nothing yet." The oncoming generation of womanhood proved Wednesday evening that it has a flair for the unusual in hats that should prove interesting ten or 20 years hence.

Even the boys got into the spirit of the occasion with huge, fancy and outright ludicrous head coverings.

Boys Win Prizes

At the Recreation park Richard Cullison won first place for the largest hat, with a huge Mexican style headpiece. Wayne Shultz won first honors and Donald Knox second places for the smallest hats.

Susie and Nancy Shaner won first and second place respectively for the most unusual hats and Nancy Myers, with a hat covered with artificial roses, won first honors for the most colorful hat. Jean Jones won second prize.

Vegetables covering her head won for Sara Snyder the first prize for the most decorated hat and Thomas Graham, who had his headpiece covered with paper pop bottles, was awarded second prize. The prettiest hat awards, first and second place respectively, went to Victoria Keefer whose hat was decorated with summer flowers and Teresa Hardman who had a flowered yellow streamer on her hat.

Other Winners

The prize for the quaintest hat went to Jane Roth, who wore a white Dutch cap, and the cutest was one worn by Barry Snyder.

The awards at the High street playground contest were: Largest, Chester Schultz and Betty Smith; smallest, Sandra Woodward and Renee Lee Shellman; funniest, Bobbie Zhea and Billy Earl; most unusual, Donnie Schmidt and Phyllis Carbaugh; prettiest, Bonnie Woodward and Rita King; best decorated, Linda Zhea and Radcliffe Schultz; most colorful, Linda Woodward and Shirley Fridinger.

ROUTINE BOARD MEETING

Tentative plans for a fall and winter program were discussed at the regular August meeting of the Board of Health Wednesday evening in the office of Dr. Harrison F. Harbach, president. Suggestions were made, but no action will be taken until the September meeting. The only other business was of a routine nature.

TO TALK ON R. C.

Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, head of staff aides for the Adams county chapter of the Red Cross, will talk about the role of women in the blood donor program and will discuss volunteer special services of the Red Cross in a WGET broadcast at 9:15 a.m. Friday.

CALLS MEETING FRIDAY

Ralph Z. Oyler, secretary-treasurer of the Gettysburg Development, Inc., has called a meeting of all members for Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Gettysburg Country club house.

HURT BY HAY HOOK

Calvin Manahan, 39, Gettysburg R. 2, received a puncture wound of his left hand on a hay hook Monday. He was given medical aid at the Warner hospital.

LEGION MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

The Albert J. Lentz Post No. 202, American Legion, will hold only one August meeting, next Monday evening, at the post home on Baltimore street, at 8 o'clock. A club meeting and meeting of directors will follow.

The post has an official membership of 1,286. Registration cards for the Red Cross blood donor campaign have been mailed to all members.

Plans are under way, according to Wilmer Dracha, house manager, for the annual Legion picnic to be held in August, the date to be announced later. The auxiliary will hold another party at the Legion home August 16, at 8:30 o'clock.

Bowling activities will get under way in September.

Music for the Saturday night dances during August will be furnished by the following orchestras: August 4, Dick Feeser; August 11, Frank Levan; August 18, Walter Carl, and August 25, the Stylists.

3 County Soldiers Return To Alaska

Three Adams countians have returned to Fairbanks, Alaska, after spending 45-day furloughs here and at Bonneauville.

The three, Cpl. Charles C. Reaver, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Reaver, West High street, and Cpl. and Mrs. Michael Chrismer, Bonneauville, made the trip here by car. Corporals Reaver and Chrismer are stationed in Alaska.

TRUMAN SAYS IKE'S JOB NOT TO BAR POLITICS

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—President Truman said today he doesn't think Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's army job in Europe will interfere with anything in 1952 if the general is interested in politics.

But he told a news conference that in any event he is sure the general will put duty to his country first.

Two senators recently returned from Europe indicated Eisenhower's duties as supreme commander of western Europe defense forces would keep him out of the field of possible presidential candidates next year.

Some Political Fencing

Asked today how long he thought it would be necessary for the general to remain in Europe, the president said the reporter's guess was as good as his own.

Mr. Truman went on to say that if the newsman was referring to 1952 (a presidential election year) he did not believe those duties would interfere with anything that might happen in 1952 if Eisenhower happened to be in that frame of mind.

The news conference was devoted largely to political fencing. Mr. Truman refused to be drawn out on implications that Eisenhower might return from his North Atlantic military command to run for the presidency. Eisenhower has refused to discuss politics with overseas newsmen.

Going To 'Frisco

On other questions Mr. Truman said:

1. He will fly to San Francisco September 4 to open the Japanese peace treaty conference. He said the trip would preclude any "whistle stop" campaigning at this particular time.

2. He would not comment on a proposal by Sen. Mundt (R-SD) proposing an alliance of southern Democrats and northern Republicans. The president said that was up to Mundt and the Dixiecrats, as he called them.

3. He is continuing his investigation of charges that William Boyle, Democratic national chairman, was paid a fee in connection with an RFC loan to a Missouri corporation.

Sorry About Connally

4. He is very sorry that Senator Connally (D-Tex) took the position he did earlier this week sharply criticizing overseas foreign aid programs.

5. He always has to be in favor of the Democrats in a choice between them and Republicans. This was in connection with request of comment on the Republican nomination of Dr. Daniel A. Poling for mayor of Philadelphia. Mr. Truman referred to him affectionately as a good Baptist preacher.

Asked whether he felt the new controls law would require the relaxation of wage controls, Mr. Truman said his statement on signing the bill speaks for itself. In that statement, he hinted at wage concessions, saying the working people could not be expected to foot the bill for profits he foresaw from the new legislation.

SOLDIERS HELD IN ATTACK CASE

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP)—Three soldiers from nearby Indiantown Gap military reservation today pleaded innocent to charges of assault and aggravated assault and battery against an 18-year old suburban Penbrook girl.

The trio waived a hearing before Alderman John L. Madden, Jr. Madden ordered them held without bail in the Dauphin county jail pending trial.

Capt. Clair Wolfe, public information officer at the base, identified the soldiers—all 20 years old—as Cpl. Thomas Fletcher Jackson, of Plasterco, Va.; Pvt. David Paul Barnd, of Findley, O., and Pvt. Richard Lamoin Goff, of Van Buren, O.

Wolfe said the trio signed statements admitting that they picked up the girl Monday night and attacked her eight times in a period of three hours in their automobile. Wolfe said the soldiers said they had been drinking beer before they accosted the girl. The victim's name was withheld by authorities.

Wolfe said military police arrested the trio within 12 hours after the girl's father reported to state police. The soldiers were handed over to civilian authorities yesterday.

Russian Deserter Is Given Asylum

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 2 (AP) — A 23-year-old Russian artillery conscript has been granted political asylum in the British zone of Germany, British authorities announced today.

The soldier, Pvt. Anatole Orlov, had been stationed south of Magedburg near the east-west zone border when he deserted and asked for refuge.

Orlov told British officials that he had been conscripted from his home in Siberia. He said he had grown to hate the Soviet regime, especially since his parents, classed as Kulaks (well-to-do farmers), had seen their little farm taken over by the state.

The young Russian soldier said that he and his parents had been exiled to Siberia after their farm was collectivized.

Duff Says Peace Still In Danger

Philadelphia, Aug. 2 (AP)—Sen. James H. Duff (R.-Pa.) said last night that if the present cease-fire negotiations in Korea break down war "will blaze out bigger than ever and we will be able to assume that World War III is here."

But even if the Korean war ends as the result of the present negotiations, Senator Duff predicted, the United States "will be in hardly less danger."

The senator and former governor of Pennsylvania told Pennsylvania chiefs of police, holding their annual convention here, that in his opinion Russia does not want peace. He said the Russians tried and failed at aggression in Korea and now are attempting to save face.

"They are holding the dagger behind their backs while Malik (Russian U.N. delegate Jacob Malik) asks for peace," Duff said. In defense of U. S. action in Korea Duff said that if communism had not been stopped there, it would have jumped to Japan, Formosa and the Philippines and sealed off all eastern Asia.

Navy Withdraws From Maneuvers

New York, Aug. 2 (AP)—The New York Times said today that navy-marine air units have withdrawn from the big war games at Fort Bragg, N. C., because of differences with the air force over the system of air control to be used.

The story, by Hanson W. Baldwin, the Times' military expert, says the cancellation represents, "according to informed sources, an indirect by-product of far broader service differences about the control of aviation assigned to the front-line support of ground troops."

The "Exercise: Southern Pine" maneuvers, termed the largest joint training exercise in this country since the end of World War II, is scheduled for the Fort Bragg-Camp MacKall area from August 13 to 28.

Taking part will be three army divisions and other ground troops totaling 85,000 men, 400 air force planes and 12,000 air force personnel. But, the Times says, navy and marine squadrons totaling more than 100 aircraft have been withdrawn.

Police Ban Sale Of Midget Pistol

Philadelphia, Aug. 2 (AP)—Philadelphia police today prohibited sale of a midget pistol, an inch and a half long and designed to fire a blank cartridge. It has been offered here as a "toy" to be attached to soocalled "charm" bracelets.

The police acted after Boston police reported ballistics tests showed the pistol could drive a common pin through an 18-inch newspaper. And a pellet, inserted in the barrel, was driven a quarter of an inch into a pine plank.

The pistol, made in Japan, sells for $1.95. Police say its sale is in violation of a city ordinance prohibiting sale of air guns, spring guns, or any weapon discharging a pellet.

Things Of The Soil

GROWING ROSES FROM CUTTINGS

Americans perhaps inherited from colonial ancestors the urge as well as the knack for growing plants from cuttings. Of course, the forefathers were impelled to this practice by necessity; today gardeners gratify a creative, plus an economical, ambition through this effort. Even passersby may observe the quiet pride with which the grower inspects the fragile plants struggling beneath upturned glass jars. And while the monetary factor may be present, the greater reward remains intangible.

Roses may have been among the first ornamental plants propagated by cuttings. And today growers may still employ this old reliable method for multiplying choice roses with no more than a minimum of labor and cost. From late July until early October roses are easily started from green or half-ripe cuttings of the current year's growth. Methods remain simple.

Shoots of vigorous growth are taken 5 to 7 inches long, with the cut made cleanly through an eye. All but the tip leaves are cut (not stripped) off with a sharp knife and the cutting is planted immediately or wrapped in wet peat moss or wet paper or dropped into a basin of water until it is planted.

For a few cuttings, planting may be done in sand or sandy loam where the plants are to grow. However, this risk requires more "green thumb" than most growers possess. A box of sand is safer. This may be a small container for a few cuttings or a coldframe for a large number. In the first case the box is placed in shade; with a coldframe the sash are slopped toward the north and an upright muslin shade erected along the south side. It is important that the cuttings enjoy shade for at least a week after planting.

The sand should be 6 to 9 inches deep. Firm it well around the cuttings after moistening it uniformily. Then place glass snugly over the box or sash on the coldframe. Or in either case the old glass jar method may be employed —a jar turned upside down over each cutting. One advantage of this method is found in the ease by which individual cuttings may be ventilated as their needs warrant.

Both extremes of moisture must be avoided. Over-watering is usually as fatal as excessive dryness. Experience will soon indicate to beginners the degree of moisture cuttings require.

After the first week a little air may be admitted daily. After leaves open as proof of root formation, more ventilation and later some sunshine should be introduced to stimulate faster and more sturdy root and foliage development.

Well rooted cuttings may be moved to their permament growing place in late fall or carried over winter with sufficient protection to prevent soil heaving. Herein the coldframe idea is most helpful. Cuttings there may be covered loosely with straw or marsh hay after freezing weather arrives and the sash handled to give shelter only during emergencies.

Use of hardwood cuttings to multiply roses is seldom justified because of the additional time required. Of course, more than one cutting can be made from each shoot by the hardwood method.

The editor invites all questions readers wish to ask on this and other phases of plant propagation.

Reds In Israel Ask Popular Front

Tel Aviv, Israel, Aug. 2 (AP) — Israel's Communist party today demanded a popular front government made up of all labor parties.

It said such a coalition would include the 46 deputies representing Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's Mapai (labor) party, the 15 from the left-wing Mapan, eight from the religious workers party — Hapoel Hamisrachi, five Arab deputies close to Ben-Gurion and five communists. This would give it 79 deputies for a majority in the 120-seat Knesset. (parliament).

Ben-Gurion is reliably reported to be opposed to any such grouping as are the religious workers.

Meanwhile Ben-Gurion is still leading a caretaker cabinet until a new one, reflecting Monday's election results, can be formed and submitted to parliament for a vote of confidence. President Chaim Weizmann has not yet asked Ben-Gurion to form such a new cabinet.

Argentina Strike Cripples Railways

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Aug. 2 (AP) —The government called in emergency crews today to run Argentina's strikebound railways, crippled earlier by a series of blasts which President Juan D. Peron's regime blamed on "alien" forces.

The anti-Peron Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen refused for the second day to report for work. Mounted police were sent to provincial railway stations to keep order.

Although section gangs, heavily guarded by police, repaired yesterday's bomb damage to four main lines, only two of them are operating. The others—main lines to the south and west—were closed tight by the refusal of engineers and firemen to work.

The government charged the explosions which ripped tracks and damaged railroad shops early yesterday were set off by criminals inspired by "forces alien to the country."

London, Aug. 2 (AP) — The British government today ordered a special plane to stand by to carry a cabinet mission to Iran for oil talks — and then postponed the flight.

A spokesman for Richard R. Stokes, lord privy seal and head of the mission, refused to say whether there had been a hitch in the projected negotiations.

"Mr. Stokes is not leaving today. Arrangements for his departure will be announced when they are known," the spokesman said.

"Top Communist" Held

Handcuffed William Schneiderman (center), 45, arrested in New York by the FBI and described as "the head of the Communist party today" in this country, leaves New York's Federal courthouse for Federal House of Detention after appearing for arraignment before U.S. Commissioner Edward W. McDonald. Escorting Schneiderman are U.S. Deputy Marshals Albert Gibson (left) and Eugene Fitzgerald. Schneiderman was held in $100,000 bail. His arrest in New York and the arrest of 10 others in California were effected simultaneously under the Smith Act.

Minesweeper Crew Held Under Guard

Stockholm, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Polish minesweeper Hedregfariczon docked in the port of Ystad today with all officers locked in their cabins after a mutiny by crew members in the Baltic, the Swedish defense staff said tonight.

The ship, which carries a crew of 33 men and officers, was placed under police and naval guard in Ystad harbor.

Preliminary reports from hearings by Swedish authorities indicated that the mutiny had been started by eight men, who later were joined by eight others, a defense staff spokesman said.

BREAM, LEGION WIN 1ST GAMES OF PLAY-OFFS

Glenn L. Bream garage defeated the Moose, 18 to 3 and Stanton Legion won, 8 to 4, over the Texas Lunch Wednesday evening in the opening games of the community softball league championship play-off series.

Five extra base hits, four homers and a triple, helped the Bream's garage squad pile up its large total against the Moose. Gorman, Kitzmiller, Rohrbaugh and Altemose all connected for four base wallops and Altemose also collected the triple. The Bream squad tallied 16 hits in all off Tawney, while the Moose were able to secure but two hits off Fair.

Legion Wins

Stanton Legion came from behind to win its game, with a big fourth inning giving the Legionnaires their victory. Up to that point the Stanton team was trailing 3 to 2. Six runs in the fourth, however, put the game on ice.

The teams will resume their "best-of-three" series again Friday when the Bream and Moose game will be the first one to be played, starting at 7:30 o'clock and the Stanton Legion will meet the Texas Lunch in the second game of the evening.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2 (AP) — The ninth resignation of high-ranking officials in the southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of the American Red Cross today left the unit without the services of a publicity adviser. All the resignations, including that of Chairman Arthur C. Kaufmann, have occurred within the past week.

Jerome B. Gray, president of the advertising firm of Gray and Rodgers, resigned as the chapter's volunteer public relations consultant yesterday, blaming the National Board of Directors for bad public relations here.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)

The Allentown Cardinals shelled two Harrisburg pitchers for 17 hits last night—topped off by a grand slam homer by catcher Eddie Polak—for a 13 to 0 victory over the Senators.

Bob Bills, Cardinal southpaw, spaced nine hits for the win.

He all but lost his shutout in the seventh inning when Harrisburg's third baseman Mattes tried to score from second on shortstop Burson's single. But a perfect peg to home plate by center fielder Russ McGovern cut down Mattes for the final out of the inning.

The Hagerstown Braves held their four-game Interstate league margin over the Cardinals by taking the Wilmington Blue Rocks 5 to 2. Gerry Levinson, Braves pitcher, yielded 11 hits but kept them pretty well scattered. Both of the Wilmington runs were unearned, resulting from errors by Bill Smith in rightfield.

Charlie Tedesco, Sunbury Giant righthander, hurled a three-hitter in beating the Lancaster Red Roses 4 to 1.

The York White Roses and Salisbury Athletics split a twin bill, York winning the opener 4 to 3 and dropping the nightcap 5 to 4.

Joe Walcott Will Tour U. S. And Canada

New York, Aug. 2 (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott, who is going to hold onto his heavyweight championship until at least the early part of 1952, is going to cash in on it, too.

Jersey Joe's manager, Felix Bocchicchio, said today Walcott will start a tour of the United States and Canada shortly, then hit South America in October and Europe in December.

Then he'll start thinking about meeting Ezzard Charles in a return bout for the title. An agreement extending the 90-day return clause in the contract was reached yesterday.

The date for the return will be set by Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing club. He declined to say whether the fight would be indoors or outdoors, but Bocchicchio has stated that he would like to have it outdoors in June.

No Tears For Benn

London, Aug. 2 (AP)—There was weeping in the streets as Albert Benn drove through north London last night.

In the suburbs of Edmonton, Palmers Green and Hendon, women, children and strong men burst into tears when his truck passed by.

Not far behind came a brigade of firemen, sluicing the streets with water.

The strange parade finally wound up at a chemical warehouse, where Benn works.

There his leaking cargo was found to be a 40-gallon drum of formaldehyde solution which turns to a kind of tear gas when exposed to air.

JOE LOUIS IS EASY WINNER OVER ARGENTINE

San Francisco, Aug. 2 (AP)—Old Joe Louis, decisive winner over Cesar Brion of the Argentine in a furious 10-round battle last night expressed keen disappointment today over circumstances which may keep him from a title fight for possibly a year.

The former champion, informed by the Associated Press of the agreement between title holder Joe Walcott and Ezzard Charles to postpone their championship rematch until next year, said he had not given up hope of regaining the crown.

"As long as Walcott or Charles has got it, we still have hope," he said.

Louis and Marshall Miles, his manager, will confer with Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing club in New York tomorrow. The ex-champ flies to Chicago today to visit his children, then to New York.

12,000 See Bout

A crowd of approximately 12,000 paid $66,525 to see Louis battle the game South American all over the ring in the closing rounds.

Brion stood up under punishment that would have flattened many a fighter. He was groggy from the seventh through the tenth. His face was puffed and blood flowed from cuts on the side of each eye.

It was Louis' second 10-round win over Brion. This one was far more decisive than their melee in Chicago last November.

The 24-year-old gamester from the Argentine carried the battle to Louis from the opening bell and was ahead on points for five rounds.

Louis, 37 and slow-footed but still packing much of the wallop that enabled him to rule the heavyweight ranks for 11 years, took pot shots at his younger opponent in the early rounds.

In the seventh round, Louis caught up with his man. He battered Brion with lefts and rights to the head and drove in body blows that had the latter groggy.

Couldn't Score Knockout

He pounded Brion steadily in the eighth, ninth and tenth. But he couldn't connect for the knockout smash he tried desperately to land.

But Brion wouldn't go down. He was beaten but on his feet and still trying at the final bell.

The decision was unanimous. It was Louis' seventh win in his comeback campaign since he lost to then-champion Ezzard Charles.

Louis weighed in at 207 pounds but said he thought his best fighting weight would be 210. Brion weighed 196.

Idaville Loses Top League Post

Mt. Holly Springs defeated Idaville 13 to 2 Wednesday night to take over leadership in the closely contested Cumberland county league from the Idaville squad.

After playing heads-up ball for weeks, the Idaville squad fell to pieces Wednesday night while Mt. Holly Springs played top-ranking ball. Piney Rebert, Al Fidler and Don Bucher took the mound in turn for Idaville without being able to stem the flood. Charles Bushey and John Wetzel were the catchers for the losers.

This evening Idaville will play Shippensburg Legion under lights at Shippensburg in a league game.

Sports Roundup

By TED MEIER

New York, Aug. 2 (AP) — Joe Louis chalked up another victory in beating Cesar Brion last night, so don't be surprised if the Brown Bomber and Ezzard Charles fight Sept. 26 in the Polo grounds as planned originally. . . The Charles camp is considering the match now that Jersey Joe Walcott has decided to postpone his first title defense until next year. . . . Final decision probably will be up to Charles, who is very much discouraged by Walcott's delaying tactics. . . . Maybe Ez will want to take a few months off or maybe he'll want to cash in on the Louis bout, a good money touch even though it would be only two weeks after the return Sugar Ray Robinson-Randy Turpin middleweight title show.

WILL DODGERS GET OVERCONFIDENT?

The Brooklyn Dodgers certainly seem a shoo-in for the National league pennant, but the Brooks better not get overconfident. . . . There have been many National league teams in the past which appeared certain winners, only to blow the pennant in September. . . . Back in 1942 the Dodgers had a 10-game lead as late as mid-August, but lost. . . . And the Chicago Cubs of 1935 came from far back with 21 straight victories in September to snatch the flag. . . . Now that Manager Eddie Sawyer has "laid down the law" to the Phillies, maybe the 1950 champs will duplicate the feat of the '35 Cubs.

ARCARO WASN'T BOOED THIS TIME

Eddie Arcaro, recognized as perhaps the best active jockey, gets booed lots of times, but not always. . . . Last Tuesday at Jamaica he rode back to the winner's circle to the accompaniment of much applause after bringing in Hell Bent in the third race. . . . Switching from the flats to harness racing, the Hambletonian is on tap next week. . . . Here's a long range look at the 1952 trotting classic. . . . Keep an eye on Kimberly Mine and Vesta's Worthy.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 2 (AP)—Bill Holland of Reading, Pa., well-known Indianapolis driver, won two out of three heats last night driving his big car in a special match race against a stock car. Holland beat Wally Campbell of Trenton in two heats and tied him in the third, at Ruppert stadium. He'll match his big car against a midget racer tonight at Roosevelt stadium in Jersey City.

Westbury, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP)—Scottish Pence, world record holder at one and one-half miles, tries tonight to win the $50,000 Nassau two-mile pace at Roosevelt raceway for the second successive year—something no other horse has been able to do.

The six-year old horse from the Castleton farm of Lexington, Ky., has been made the 4 to 5 favorite to whip 11 of the fastest side-wheelers in the sport.

YANKS, DETROIT SPLIT AS CHISOX NIP ATHLETICS

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Pity the poor pitchers, caught in the steaming heat and doubleheader jam of the steaming four-club American league race. Even the best are crumbling under the strain.

Allie Reynolds, no-hit ace of the Yankees surge, lasted only one inning yesterday against Detroit as New York lost a 9-8 first game. Things were so tough that Casey Stengel brought him back to rescue Tom Morgan and save the Yanks' two-game lead with a 10-6 edge in the second.

Cleveland's Bob Lemon was bombed in the sixth at Washington where overworked Mike Garcia, a 13-game winner, had to help save an 8-6 first game. Early Wynn failed to last in the second game, fading for a pinch hitter in Washington's 4-3 victory.

Pierce Goes Route

Only one Boston Red Sox pitcher has gone the route in the last seven games with the club home at Fenway Park where it is supposed to be invincible. Instead of gaining ground, the Sox have dropped 2½ behind the Yanks.

Ellis Kinder made his fifth appearance in a week yesterday after Willard Nixon pulled a tendon in his thigh sliding into a base. Nixon, inconsistent all season with only two complete games, was pitching two-hit ball for seven innings when hurt. Walt Masterson and Kinder nailed down his 5-1 edge over St. Louis.

For a change Chicago got a full nine-inning job as Billy Pierce whipped Philadelphia, 4-3, to remain seven games off the pace. But White Sox pitchers have been showing the strain during the eastern swing, Howie Judson and Joe Dobson, in particular.

27th For Kiner

Brooklyn's pitching also had a rough time at Pittsburgh where the Pirates knocked out Ralph Branca and roughed up loser Clyde King to win 12-9. Ralph Kiner hit his 27th homer for the Bucs and Gil Hodges No. 31 for Brooklyn in the loosely played struggle.

The loss cut the Brooks' lead to nine games because New York split a pair with Chicago, losing 3-2 to Cal McLish and winning 2-0 on Al Corwin's seven-hit shutout for his first big league victory.

Despite a 1-0 blanking at the hands of Cincinnati's Kenny Raffensberger, the Phillies held tight to third place because St. Louis lost. The Cardinals were edged out by Boston, 2-1, dropping into a fourth-place tie with the Braves.

U. S. Seeks Release Of Reporter Unjustly Imprisoned By Czechs

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—Congress and the State Department are making new efforts to obtain the release of AP Correspondent William Oatis from a Czech prison.

The House Foreign Affairs committee yesterday adopted a resolution vigorously condemning Czechoslovakia's action and urging the U.S. government to "take all possible action" to bring about Oatis' release.

The resolution is due for House action next week after which it will go to the Senate. If adopted by both Houses, the resolution will be sent to the Czech government and to the United Nations.

Secretary of State Acheson told a news conference yesterday that the U.S. government is taking definite steps to obtain Oatis' freedom. He declined to reveal what is being done because he said a premature revelation might not be in Oatis' best interests.

Acheson said the Oatis case is one of great importance to the government and people of the United States. Czechoslovakia turned down an earlier State Department protest and appeal for Oatis' release.

The 37-year-old Oatis, a native of Marion, Ind., was convicted by a Prague court last month on charges of espionage and sentenced to ten years imprisonment. The arrest and conviction have been widely denounced as a sham and a violation of basic human rights.

There were these other developments yesterday.

The National Press club board of governors adopted a resolution calling for Oatis' immediate release and charging that the Czech regime had distorted all honest reporting "through perverted processes of justice."

The Ohio Republican House delegation urged the government to break off immediately all commercial relations with Czechoslovakia and restore those relations only if and when Oatis is freed.

President Truman yesterday took a preliminary step that will lead eventually to suspending tariff concessions to Russia and her satellites, including Czechoslovakia.

WEST EUROPE INCREASES ITS MILITARY GOODS

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA) said today that Western Europe is expected to double its production of military goods in the year ahead.

It's already been doubled once "in the two years since the North Atlantic Treaty was signed," ECA added in its quarterly report for the January-March, 1951, period. President Truman sent the report to Congress today.

ECA said most Western European countries are now spending far more for national defense and far less for non-military purposes than before the Korean outbreak.

"Remarkable Recovery"

But it warned that raw material shortages and rising prices threaten both military output and the area's economy.

Declaring that the Marshall Plan program has brought about a "remarkable recovery" in Western Europe and has provided a "sound economic base for the new defense commitments which the North Atlantic treaty countries x x x are undertaking," the report added:

"It is important, however, that these gains be preserved and extended.

ECA authorizations for the quarter amounted to $430,100,000 bringing to $10,700,000,000 the authorizations approved since the start of the Marshall Plan program three years ago.

Western Germany received the largest amount, or $105,100,000. France received $77,900,000, Italy $48,100,000, and Austria $35,800,000.

High Production

Britain and Ireland already are operating without Marshall Plan aid, and ECA Administrator William C. Foster said in Paris yesterday that Sweden and Portugal have decided to get along without further dollar help.

The report painted a generally bright overall picture for the quarter, saying industrial production in Marshall Plan countries was maintained at the peak level of the previous quarter and was up 13 percent over a similar 1950 period. It averaged 39 percent above prewar.

"Lindbergh Of Sea" To Circle Globe

San Pedro, Aug. 2 (AP)—Harry Pidgeon, dubbed the "Lindbergh of the Sea" after twice circling the globe alone in a 26-foot yawl, is going to try it again at the age of 82. The old seafarer will launch another yawl here Saturday in which he plans a third trip around the world, this time with his wife along.

His first two voyages, each of about three years' duration, were made starting in 1921 and 1935 from San Pedro. Still hungry for adventure, Pidgeon set sail again in 1947, but lost his boat in a typhoon off the New Hebrides.

The Pidgeons plan to sail the yawl to Honolulu on her maide voyage.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ENJOYMENT—NOT POSSESSION

No matter how much wealth any of us might have, if it didn't bring us enjoyment it would be valueless. We all know people of wealth who experience little happiness from it, whereas millions of people of modest means have few possessions but are rich in enjoyment.

All about us are possessions that are none of ours, yet they are, for we gain enjoyment from them that costs us nothing. Not long ago I walked through that magnificent gallery in Washington, D. C. — the National Gallery. Andrew Mellon donated the building that cost millions, and then gave his wonderful collection of paintings, and other men have generously given great collections to enrich this beautiful place.

Now anyone can walk into that great gallery and own all its gifts while they are being enjoyed. And many another gallery and museum, as well as many a library, can do as much for anyone who simply has the gift of appreciation within him, and who can enjoy what he sees with his eyes and fells with his inward senses.

The child gets enjoyment out of the simplest toys. It doesn't understand the more intricate ones, and so casts them aside. When we complicate our lives with possessions that often cause us to worry about them, what do we gain from them? People should stay with the work that gives them the most enjoyment and which makes them the most useful. We don't have to own the city in which we live in order to enjoy it!

If you can't get enjoyment out of what you may have, get rid of it. Invest in something that does give you enjoyment. We can go without more than we ever realize.

We can even enjoy the possessions of others and be happy that they have them. It never pays to begrudge another his happiness or enjoyment that he has justly earned. There is an old Chinese saying that says: "Enjoy yourself. It is later than you think." That is a thought worth paying attention to. Get wisdom. Get experience. Get understanding — but always plan to get enjoyment out of whatever you put your mind or hand hand to.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "How Little We Know!"

MAN'S DOUBLE LIFE

Man has more loves than one. He shares
A portion of his heart with things
For which through life he greatly cares;
To which always he fondly clings.
All fishermen great love reveal
For finely fashioned rod and reel.

A golfer with affection looks
On clubs for certain shots designed.
Another gives his heart to books.
Craftsmen love tools of every kind.
To coins and stamps considered rare
Collectors give the tenderest care.

After the honeymoon has waned,
And settled down as man and wife,
Many a woman has complained
Her husband leads a double life.
He loves her truly, but 'tis true
He loves his hobby's gadgets, too.

ADM. FECHTELER TO BE SHERMAN SUCCESSOR IN ATLANTIC FLEET

By ELTON C. FAY
(AP Military Affairs Reporter)

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—Adm. William M. Fechteler, who steered clear of the "admirals' revolt" against administration policy, is President Truman's choice for the top navy command. (The nominee's name is pronounced "Fek-tel-er.")

The President sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of Fechteler, now commander of the Atlantic Fleet, to be Chief of Naval Operations, succeeding the late Adm. Forrest P. Sherman who died July 22 while on a military-diplomatic mission to Europe.

Fechteler, 55 years old and with 35 years of navy service, has had wide experience in virtually every type of warship—except submarines and aircraft carriers.

Passed By Airmen

That appeared to be one of the reasons why Mr. Truman chose him, because he was not an airman and thus not touched by the zeal with which navy airmen plunged into the controversy with the Defense Department and the air force three years ago. There have been strong indications in recent weeks that the feud between the air force and navy —long-range land-based bombers vs. carrier-borne air power—might boil to the surface again.

In choosing Fechteler, the President passed by Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chief of the Pacific Fleet, senior of four-star admirals on active duty. Radford is a navy airman who played a part in the old navy-air force controversy.

To fill the vacancies which will be created by the expected Senate confirmation of Fechteler's nomination, Mr. Truman nominated Adm. Lynde D. McCormick, now the acting Chief of Naval Operations, to be commander of the Atlantic Fleet. McCormick was a submariner before he became Vice Chief of Naval Operations. Vice Adm. Donald P. Duncan, Deputy Chief of Operations, was proposed by the President for promotion to vice chief.

International Angle

If the nominations settled the navy question at home, it left unsettled an international naval perplexity.

Fechteler had been picked as the American admiral who would be named supreme commander of Allied forces in the North Atantic ocean region under the NATO setup. That choice reportedly was made early last winter when it looked as if Britain and the European NATO members were in firm accord with the U. S. on the plan to put an American in the overall command.

But when the news became known, there was sharp reaction in Britain. Some leading Britons, including Winston Churchill, thought Britain's traditional position as a great seapower was being ignored, and that England had been "brushed out of the way" and the honor given to another nation.

The objection did not appear to be to Fechteler nor to any American officer, only to failure to give the post to Britain. Thus Fechteler's new appointment seemingly would have little or no effect on this issue. The question remains whether there will be another effort to name an American to head the NATO Atlantic command or whether the U. S., already impatient over the wrangling, will let it go by default.

Saigon, Indochina, Aug. 2 (AP) — Thai Lap Thanh, governor of South Vietnam, was killed Tuesday morning by a grenade thrown by a Vietminh (Communist-led revolutionaries). The attack was made at Sadec, 60 miles south of Saigon, during an inspection. Three French officers who were in the same party were wounded. The assassin, about 25 years old, was killed instantly.

An experimental machine has been developed that digs, cleans, stems and bags peanuts.

5 LAWMAKERS, TWO QUESTIONS AWAIT ANSWERS

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP) — A measure passed by the House and now before the Senate has raised two ticklish questions that most likely will remain unanswered unless the Justice Department makes a ruling.

The bill's purpose is to prohibit state legislators from holding local elective posts at the same time. If approved by the Senate and signed by the governor it would become law on Sept. 1.

The touchy questions have come out of the way the Legislature has been going. A special session in January seems likely and if it's held the questions would become a reality.

What happens to a state legislator, who now holds a local office if a special session is called after the law is passed? What will happen to five prominent lawmakers if they are elected to local office in November's municipal elections?

A Justice Department official says he "seems pretty sure" those presently holding office, in question one, could take part in any special session. They could also serve out their terms, he said.

"This is not a legal opinion," the officials said. "I'm merely expressing my viewpoint. But I feel pretty sure they could take in any special session."

He termed question two "a toughie that I wouldn't bother with until an official opinion is needed."

Two of the five lawmakers are on the Senate Rules committee which will consider the bill next week. Sen. John M. Walker, Republican Senate leader, is chairman of the committee. He is also a candidate for county commissioner in Allegheny county. "The action to be taken on the bill will be decided by committee as a whole," Walker told a reporter.

The other member of the committee who would be affected is Sen. John H. Dent, Senate Democratic leader and candidate for county commissioner in Westmoreland county. The other three legislators are Sen. G. Graybill Diehm, candidate for re-election as county commissioner in Lancaster county; Sen. William J. Lane, candidate for re-election as county commissioner in Washington county, and Rep. A. J. Petrosky (D.-Westmoreland), candidate for county treasurer.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug 2 (AP)—The estate of the late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg totals $830,581.46, an inventory filed in probate court here shows.

The report, filed yesterday by the Michigan National bank, executor, lists these assets:

Government bonds, $135,639.10; other bonds, $75,941.22; stocks, $489,259.95; real estate, $56,000; bank accounts and miscellaneous items, $73,741.19.

The Republican senator's will was filed April 24, six days after his death. He left $10,000 each to his three children, Arthur H. Vandenberg, Jr., Mrs. Barbara Vandenberg Bailey and Mrs. Elizabeth Vandenberg Pfeiffer, all of Grand Rapids.

Bequests of $5,000 each were made to his grandchildren, John V. Bailey, III, John K. Bailey, and Barbara Pfeiffer. Dr. A. B. Smith, his personal physician, was to receive $7,500 and his personal secretary, Miss Geraldyne Creagan, $1,000.

The will stipulates that the remainder of the estate shall be divided equally among his three children. Vandenberg's wife, Hazel, died June 10, 1950.

U. S. SERGEANT IS FAST WORKER

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 2 (AP)—A wedding today will cap the four hour courtship of an American Air Force sergeant and a British Airlines hostess.

Mrs. Winifred F. Spears of Hertfordshire, England, ran to the arms of staff Sgt. William Griggs last night and when a long, long kiss was over, said:

"I'm overwhelmed at my reception in the United States."

The romance was revealed when Mrs. Spears and her 11-year-old daughter, Antoinette, landed in New York yesterday.

The couple met several months ago, when Griggs was a member of a crew that ferried a bomber to England. He had a four hour delay at the field before starting the flight home. There he met Winifred.

"It was love at first sight," Griggs said. "It was one of those things you can't do anything about. I guess she felt the same way."

Mrs. Spears said she and the sergeant talked for those four hours—"about ourselves."

"He asked me if I could cook and if I could sew, and I said 'sure, I can do all those things,' so he said 'okay, let's get married."

She got a letter four days later which said Griggs wasn't fooling.

He showed up a few weeks later to prove it. Again as a member of a bomber ferry crew. This time he took her to London to help her with travel arrangements.

Turnpike Extension To Open August 7

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP)—A ten- mile stretch of the Pennsylvania turnpike between Irwin and Pittsburgh will be opened to traffic on August 7. Gov. John S. Fine, in fixing the date, said no ceremonies are planned.

The stretch is part of the 67-mile western extension of the famed toll highway to the Ohio border now under construction. It will connect Irwin, the present western terminus with the Pittsburgh interchange near Monroeville at the junction of U. S. Route 22.

POODLE CLOTH USED IN COATS

Paris, Aug. 2 (AP) — Skirts were only about 12 inches from the floor at Maggy Rouff's collection last night, and many of them were covered with very long tunics.

Coat collars were turned so high the mannequins could just peer out over the top of them, and stiff leather belts or velvet cumberbund effects were about eight inches wide in front, curving down behind. Little evening dresses had "tea cosy" skirts pleated and blousing over the hips, but tapering to a wide cuff at the hem.

Some tunics had hems of fur. There was a full length leather coat with cowl-banded collar, and several cellophane mixture dresses, shiny as fish scales. "Poodle cloth" coats imitated Persian lamb.

Satin evening slippers had net and jet rosettes on the toes, and models carried "diamond" clips on their shoulders. Satin surfaced tissue shantungs and Aleutian gauze were much used for evening and cocktail dresses, often in beautiful ruby reds and emerald greens. A full-skirted black net formal was sprinkled starrily with big rhinestones.

Many evening dresses had halter necks, bare backs, and tight hobble skirts partly covered with fully gathered overskirts.

What! No Ford?

Chicago, Aug. 2 (AP)—Orville F. Andrews reported his automobile missing yesterday and told police they should have no trouble recognizing it. Andrews gave police this detailed description of the car:

A 1949 Chevrolet convertible body, mounted on a 1939 Studebaker chassis, with a 1949 Kaiser front bumper and a 1949 Oldsmobile rear bumper, plus a 1949 modified Chevrolet grill, with a 1950 Studebaker six-cylinder engine, No. 505-230-039.

Andrews, a clerk, said the car has no top and is metallic blue.

He said he sold the car to a stranger for $1,200, but got only $25 before the stranger disappeared with the automobile.

FINAL DEFEAT OF INCOME TAX BILL PREDICTED

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP) — Sen. G. Graybill Diehm (R.-Lancaster) today predicted a final defeat next week for Gov. John S. Fine's one-half of one per cent income tax.

"I don't know of any of us who have opposed that tax who have changed their minds," he told a newsman. "They (the administration) don't have the votes."

Diehm was among eight Republican senators who agreed yesterday to take a showdown vote on the levy next Monday in the Senate Finance committee. He has been one of the leading opponents of the $119,000,000 income tax.

Difficult To Reach Floor

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Senate president pro tempore, said he would ask Chairman T. Newell Wood (R.-Luzerne) of the Finance committee to call the Monday meeting "to finally consider this bill." The committee has had official custody of the bill since a bloc of 11 GOP senators refused to support it last April.

"It has been suggested by the Republican caucus that, due to the many conflicting statements about the proposed income tax, steps be taken to settle the issue one and for all," Taylor said.

The lineup of the 17-member Senate Finance committee would indicate that the income tax bill would have difficulty reaching the floor. Five of its members are among the 11 Republicans who have consistently opposed the bill. Five others are Democrats who have taken a party stand against the levy.

If that opposition continued to a vote, the best the administration could summon in support of the bill is seven vote compared to the 10 anti-income tax lawmakers.

Hold Closed Conference

The decision to seek a Senate Finance committee vote on the bill was reached at a closed conference held after both the Senate and House adjourned yesterday until next Monday.

The House passed and sent to the Senate administration bills increasing benefits for unemployed and disabled workers in Pennsylvania after Republican spokesman described the program as "monumental." Democrats, although conceding improvements, said that the bills did no go far enough.

Workmen compensation and occupational disease benefits would go from maximum of $25 a week $30. Maximum weekly unemployment compensation payments would be increased by the same figures.

Compromise On Oleo

The session's biggest surprise came yesterday with submission in both branches of a compromise oleomargarine bill, with backing of Agriculture committees in both House and Senate.

The measure was promptly approved by the House Agriculture committee, putting it in position for a vote there next week. Chairman George B. Scarlett (R.-Chester) of the Senate Agriculture committee, promised similar action by his group next week.

The measure would permit sale of yellow margarine in one-pound lots at stores for home consumption only. The present ban on its use in hotels or restaurants would be continued.

Adjournment Looms

Previous margarine bills had been killed by both House and Senate committees.

A showdown vote on the income tax next week would leave open the question, "where do we go from here?" should it be defeated.

Since the past three months has failed to produce any semblance of a tax compromise despite countless efforts, many legislators have been urging adjournment this month with the idea of returning in January for a special session on taxes.

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — About 62,700 college students flunked the first draft aptitude test, given May 26 to 165,000 men, Selective Service said Tuesday. The agency announced the outcome of the first test only. A total of 339,056 students took the test May 26, June 16, June 30 or July 12, but results from the latter tests have not been tabulated.

Littlestown

Littlestown—A farewell party was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clingan, this place, on Monday evening at Meadow View Park, near Union Mills, Md., by the employes of the Strouse Baer company. Mr. and Mrs. Clingan have sold their home on Lumber street, and are moving to Arizona in the near future. Mr. Clingan had been employed until recently, as a machinist at the Strouse Baer company, working at the three local factories on South Queen, Lumber and East King street. A picnic lunch was the feature of the evening and the park activities provided recreation. Those in attendance at the party were the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, Mrs. Grace Rose, Mrs. Evelyn Hankey, Mrs. Annabelle Ohler, Mrs. Bessie Humbert, Miss Margaret Smith, Mrs. Josephine Hornberger, Miss Lydia Sentz, Mrs. Edna Sanders, Mrs. Ruth Dooley, Mrs. Sue Shanebrook, Mrs. Carrie Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Reichart, Mrs. Mary Bechtel, Mrs. Gertrude Wareheim, Mrs. Ida Bowers, Mrs. Madeline Smith, Gregory Smith, Miss Helen Slick, Mrs. Mabel Cootes, Miss Esta Sterner, Mrs. Ruth Harmon, Miss Marie Flickinger, Mrs. Hazel Flickinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clingan and daughter, Teresa, Miss Rose Ann Smith, Miss Pauline Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clingan, Mrs. Erma Ketterman, Mrs. Gladys Junior, Mrs. Ruth Crouse, Mrs. Agnes Barnes, Mrs. Alice Smith and Harold Krichten.

The Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce held a family night outing Monday evening at Meadow View park, near Union Mills, Md. A picnic supper was enjoyed, followed with swimming and other recreation. The next regular meeting of the Jaycees will be held Monday, August 6, at 7:30 p.m., at Schottie's hotel. The organization will sponsor a baseball game between two "Old Timers" teams, consisting of former baseball stars of the community, on Friday evening, August 17, on Littlestown Memorial field. The game proceeds will be given to the Littlestown high school Athletic association, to help defray the cost of the Memorial field.

SOLON DENIES LOSING $5,500 IN CRAP GAME

Columbus, O., Aug. 2 (AP)—Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) last night denied testimony at a bankruptcy hearing here that he dropped $5,500 to a Columbus man in a crap game two years ago, and failed to pay up.

"I don't recall when I have ever played crap, and I wouldn't have had that much money anyway," McCarthy said, when reached by telephone at his Washington residence.

Bob Byers, Sr., an Ohio real estate operator and builder, testified yesterday at his $500,000 bankruptcy hearing that the Wisconsin senator lost $5,500 to his son, Bob Byers, Jr., at a game during a party in a Columbus hotel (Seneca).

"He (McCarthy) never paid it," the elder Byers testified. "I think my son is still waiting for his money."

Hired As Speaker

Bob Byers, Jr., was not available for comment.

McCarthy was engaged as a speaker for a party staged for business representatives at the Byers Real Estate and Building Enterprises, the elder Byers testified.

He said he paid the senator a "standard fee" of $500 on two occasions. Then Byers Sr. added:

"But my son took $5,500 away from him in a crap game, and that put us ahead."

McCarthy said last night there was "absolutely nothing at all" to Byers' testimony.

"Bob Jr. and I have never played craps," McCarthy declared.

The nature of the service McCarthy performed to earn him two $500 fees was not made clear at the hearing.

Byers is appearing before Bankruptcy Referee Gail M. Butt in a $500,000 suit brought against a chain of organizations he once headed. Bankruptcy trustees have taken over control of the various companies' assets in behalf of creditors.

CONGRESSMAN RESIGNS OFFICE FOR MORE MONEY

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—There's a new move afoot to raise the salaries of congressmen since one of them quit this week in order to make some money for his wife and kids.

Don't look for much to come of it, though. Members of Congress would like more take-home-pay—as who wouldn't?—but they're mighty cagey about voting themselves an increase. For one thing, the voters might not like it. And there's an election next year.

Every now and then a congressman gives up his job to make more money in private industry. But few have been as frank about their reasons as Texas' Ed Gossett, who stood before the House Tuesday and announced:

Needs More Money

"It has become absolutely impossible for a man to do his full duty as a congressman and to do his full duty to his family, especially if he has five small children. It is for the Gossett family, and not for myself, that we return to Texas."

Then after six terms and a part of a seventh, off Gossett went to a $25,000-a-year job as general counsel for a utility company.

Congressmen already make considerably more money than most people. Their salary is $12,500 a year. Then there's a tax-free expense allowance of $2,500. Plus a 20-cents-a-mile travel allowance (once each way per session) to get them from home to Washington and back.

In addition to stationery, telephone and similar allowances, there's around $20,000 a year for office help —and some members devote part of this to a wife-secretary.

Attractive Jobs

But there's another side to the story:

With few exceptions, your congressman has to maintain two homes —one in his district, the other in or around Washington.

Then there's entertainment—and the contribution problem. Congressmen feel obliged to give to just about every worthy cause that comes along.

And above all, there's the cost of getting reelected. It costs some a lot of money to keep coming to Washington term after term.

The great majority keep coming, though—or trying to come. And that's what convinces one of their number, Rep. Usher Burdick (R-ND), that no pay raise is needed. The job is attractive enough as it is, he argued—must be, or people all over the country wouldn't be fighting to get it.

4 MORE PLAYS AT TOTEM POLE

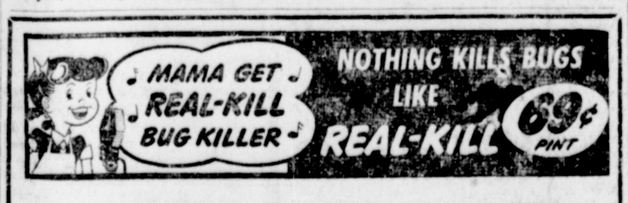

Continuing to play to capacity audiences this week in the Totem Pole playhouse between Caledonia and Pine Grove in the pre-Broadway tryout of "River Boy," the Karl Genus company has announced they will extend their run in the Adams county summer theater ot a full ten weeks, closing on Labor Day.

Four plays have been added to the season's repertoire. From August 7 to 11 the attraction will be the farce comedy "See How They Run"; August 14 to 18, "The Beautiful People," Saroyan's comedy; August 21-25, "Clash by Night," Odet's great drama, and August 28 to September 1, "Harvey" with matinee and evening performances on Labor Day.

This week's play, "River Boy," is the work of Grant Mitchell, who had roles in the first three plays at the Totem Pole playhouse this season. His last appearance was as the doctor in "Rain." The play has been produced several times on the West coast and is being given at Nantucket later this month by another company. It is under option for New York production during the coming season. Mitchell is publicity director at the Totem Pole.

Wallace Eley, who has had minor roles in previous Totem Pole plays, has the lead as "Jer Trivett" in the current dramatic story of river folk in the midwest. Estelle Omens, a Totem Pole favorite, gives another top performance as "Jer's" mother. Eley is performing with his right leg in a cast, the result of a pulled cartilege. Judy Price, Al Hinckley and Loretta Leversee give their usual capable performance on the "lazy susan" stage that revolves for play action along the river and in the Trivett's poverty-ridden home.

The deepest sounding recorded in any of the Great Lakes was in Lake Superior at a depth of 1,290.

BIG CROWD AT BENEFIT GAME

A large crowd was present at the Memorial Field on Tuesday evening to cheer the Has-Beens in their clash with the "Bulldogs," Littlestown's baseball team, in the benefit game sponsored by the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce, for the high school band uniform fund. The Bulldogs won 23 to 6.

The high school band, accompanied by members of the Has-Been's team in cars provided by local dealers paraded over the streets of the town prior to the game. The following Has-Been's were introduced to the fans, in pre-game ceremonies: Karl "Bud" Bankert, manager; Lewis H. Fox, Walter S. Mehring, Donald C. Arbogast, Frank Shuff, starting pitcher; Melvin Spangler, Henry E. Waltman, Warren Wisotzkey, James Shomper, J. Everett Feeser, Levere Breighner, Robert J. Stonesifer, George Worley, Guy Conover, W. Ramsay Jones, Orville Newman and Paul E. Altoff.

Awards provided by several of the business men of the community, were presented to the following members of the town team: Paul Hull, for the first error, the first triple, first run and first hit; Lloyd Harner, for first double; William Mehring for first strike out; Staub, first home run; first walk, Robert Smith, and first run batted in, Clyde W. Crouse.

Awards to the Has-Beens were received by James Shomper, first error; R. J. Stonesifer, first strike-out; Henry E. Waltman, first double; Everett Feeser, first hit; Frank Shuff, first run batted in; Everett Feeser, first run, and Bud Bankert, first walk. The fans who received cash awards were T. A. Allison, Larry Sentz and A. K. Stock.

Hostess To Society

Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, South Queen street, was hostess to the Abigail Kammerer Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church at the July meeting Tuesday evening in the form of a lawn supper. Mrs. George Schaeffer was the leader at the regular meeting which was held following the meal. The topic was entitled, "How Can We Achieve A Christian Community?" and related experiences in the ministry of the Rev. John Frederick Oberland. The subject was introduced my Mrs. Schaeffer and a discussion was held by the members on leadership, education and social conditions. A litany prayer was read by the leader with a response given by the members. The guess package contributed by Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner was received by Mrs. Walter Groce. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, August 28, at the home of Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Prince street, and Mrs. Crane Manchey will be the leader for the meeting.

The auxiliary to the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold a food sale on Saturday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock, at the post home, West King street.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Study, Park avenue, held a party on Monday evening on the lawn of their home in honor of their daughter, Sandra, who was celebrating her third birthday anniversary. Games were played and a story telling session was held. The guest of honor received many gifts. Refreshments were served to the following: Barbara Pittenturf, Vicki Lynn Baker, Patricia Stuller, Susan Stuller, Jacqueline Elder and the honored guest.

Miss Audrey Ellen Brumbach returned on Sunday to the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John C. Brumbach, Bangor, after spending several weeks with friends in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duffy, Springfield, O., have returned home after spending several days visiting with Mrs. Bertie Smith, West King street, and with other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Two Kiddies Lost In Accident, Fire

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP)—A sixteen-year-old boy backed a truck over his two-year-old niece last night, crushing her to death as she played in the front yard of her home, police reported.

Coroner S. J. Roberts issued a certificate of accidental death.

The tiny victim was Elizabeth Joann Harvey. Police identified the uncle as Lester Harvey.

Lock Haven, Pa., Aug. 2 (AP)—A two-year-old baby burned to death in her crib last night when fire destroyed a small garage apartment.

Police said an older sister of the victim was baby sitting but stepped out of the apartment to look after another Gardner child. It was then that flames from a kitchen stove ignited the apartment, killing little Candace Gardner.

The children's parents were away at the time of the fire.

TRUCKER FINED $25

Rufus T. Turner, Charlestown, W. Va., truck driver arrested this morning by state police of the Gettysburg substation on an overweight charge, paid a fine of $25 and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

New York, Aug. 2 (AP)—Enrico Caruso, the great operatic tenor, died 30 years ago today. But his voice was not stilled. Since his death, his estate has received more than $1,000,000 in royalties from the sale of his records alone, Radio Corporation of America said today.

With U. S. Second Division, Korea, Aug. 2 (AP)—The orders were: Shoot at anything that moves during the night. "I" Company sharpshooters fired at every rustle. At daybreak they found three dead squirrels.

FIRE COMPANY CARNIVAL WILL START MONDAY

Plans were discussed for the carnival to be held August 6 through 11, on the community playground, at the monthly meeting of the Alpha Fire company Tuesday evening at the engine house. President Bernard M. Selby requested that as many members of the company as possible be present on the grounds during the week.

On Monday evening the general committee and the ladies auxiliary met to further plans for a refreshment stand at the carnival. It was decided to sell home-made baked foods on Friday and Saturday evenings and all women of the community who wish to contribute pies and cakes for the stand, should bring them to the grounds or call a member of the company and the articles will be collected.

Special Entertainment

Special entertainment will be featured every evening throughout the week, as follows: Monday, The Buckboard Ramblers; Tuesday, The Black Hills Caravan; Wednesday, Cody and Cody, knife throwing, whip cracking and musical team; Thursday, Shorty and Sally Fincher; Friday, the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school band; Saturday, The Rhythm Rascals.

All members of the organization are asked to come to the playground Friday evening to help erect the carnival stands.

Committees were appointed as follows: general, Paul L. Hollinger, chairman, Wilson Greene, Henry E. Waltman, Wayne Arnold, Harry W. Badders and Bernard M. Selby; advertising, Paul E. Altoff; finance, Wilbur A. Bankert, chairman, Edward J. Altoff and Theron W. Spangler; erection of the stands, George W. Strevig, chairman, Norman J. Hahn, Jack H. Crouse and Herbert Frock; entertainment, Henry E. Waltman and Paul R. Snyder, co-chairmen; books, James U. Bowers, chairman, Levi Hull, Lewis Reaver, Glenn E. Ohler, Robert L. Snyder and Edward Warner; refreshment committee to assist the company auxiliary, Gene Renner, chairman, Clair Redding, G. Richard Knipple, Wayne Arnold, Harry Stavely, Harry W. Badders, Edward G. Loeffel, Gordon Cootes, Monroe J. Stavely and Ivan Rickrode; fruit stand, Bernard Dillman, chairman, Paul M. Bowman, Carroll Oaster, Harry Strevig, Walter C. Myers and Dennis S. Wallick; country store, Charles W. Weikert, chairman, John Krichten, Vernon Study, Clayton L. Evans, John P. McSherry and Richard Hartlaub; games, Robert Koontz, chairman, Harold Sparver, Lake A. Shanebrook and Monroe J. Stavely, Robert Myers, Lawrence Toller and Clark Fuhrman, Kenneth Olinger, J. Everett Feeser, Mervin LeGore, Richard Geisler and Edgar A. Wolfe.

Two New Members

Two candidates were elected to membership Tuesday night, Reid C. Pittenturff and Fred Breighner. Bills ordered paid amounted to $363.96; $60 was received from the relief fund; $1,099 in other receipts, including the donations from the annual community solicitations just completed; and $1,000 was transferred from the carnival finance committee. Contributions received for services rendered were $50 from Dr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spangler and $25 from the Hoffman orphanage.

Fire Chief Glenn E. Ohler reported that the company had answered three calls during the past four weeks, one call to Germany township, one to Mt. Joy township and one assist call. An appeal was received by the company from the American Red Cross for blood donors. Cards were distributed among the members to be signed and returned if they wish to donate blood.

Ralph Staley reported for the building committee on the progress on the new addition under construction at the engine house and said it probably will be completed in five or six weeks.

The meeting closed with refreshments served to the 50 members in attendance by the July committee composed of John P. McSherry, Emory W. Wintrode and Ralph Conover. Part of the refreshments were contributed by Reigle's grocery. The next meeting of the company will be held Tuesday, September 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the engine house.

Cubs Have Wiener Roast

Approximately 120 were present at the wiener roast held on Tuesday evening in McSherry's woods, near town, for the Littlestown Cub Scouts, their parents, leaders and friends. A campfire followed with group singing. The scouts hiked to the woods earlier in the evening and remained there to camp overnight. Those who remained over night with the scouts were Cubmaster L. Robert Crouse, Den Father Beavon Hanlon and Senior Scouts Dean Sell, Dean Bankert and Kenneth Olinger. The Denmothers Mrs. E. Paul Bigelow, Mrs. Edwin W. Elder, Jr., Mrs. Robert H. Miller, Mrs. Beavon Hanlon and Mrs. G. Richard Knipple went out to the camp on Wednesday morning to prepare breakfast for the scouts and help them pack to return home. The boys extend their thanks to the Cub leaders, the Senior Scouts, their parents and all others who helped make the camp a success. The regular meeting of the Cubs will not be held this evening.

The Drum and Bugle Corps to the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will go to New Oxford on Friday afternoon to lead the Irishtown Fire company in the parade there at 3 o'clock.

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg—Miss Marjorie Crist and Miss Barbara Hays returned Monday from Camp Nawakwa, near Arendtsville, where they were enrolled for two weeks in the Senior girls' camp.

Mrs. Roy Gelwicks, Baltimore, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. John Wagaman, this week.

Miss Mae Rowe left Tuesday for a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Leland Norris, at Dayton, Ohio.

A Homecoming service will be held at Elias Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday, September 2, at 10:30 a.m. The committee to promote the Homecoming service is as follows: Mrs. Robert Gillelan, Miss Grace Rowe, Mrs. George Eyster, Mrs. R. M. Zacharias, Mrs. Charles Harner, Mrs. Charles L. Sharrer, Mrs. Roy Maxell, Mrs. Roy Bollinger, Miss Ruth Shuff, Mrs. Allen Bollinger and Mrs. James Taylor. This committee will hold its first meeting at the Parish house tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Indian Lookout Sportsmen's club of Emmitsburg met Tuesday evening at Shank's mill pond, Zora, with a good attendance and President Harold Hoke in charge. The entire evening was spent in rifle, bow and arrow, clay bird shooting, plug casting and swimming. Business was omitted. High scores in the shooting contests went to Weldon B. Shank, John Eyler and B. Rodgers. Refreshments were served.

The Young Adult club of the Elias Evangelical Lutheran church, Clarence Hahn, president, held its regular July meeting at Shank's mill pond, Zora, with about 25 members and several guests present. The evening was spent in playing volleyball and other games. In the late evening a camp fire and wiener roast were enjoyed by all. It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Young Adults in Zentz's meadow on Sunday afternoon, August 19.

General Van Hooten Joins 28th Division

Camp Atterbury, Ind., Aug. 2 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Thomas L. Hoban of Scranton, Pa., will be succeeded Monday as assistant commander of the 28th Division by Brig. Gen. John Gibson Van Hooten.

Hoban is being assigned to the Fifth Army Headquarters, Chicago. He has served under Maj. Gen. Daniel E. Strickler, commander of the 28th, since the Pennsylvania unit was federalized last September until May when he was assigned to the officer promotion board, Washington, D. C.

Hoban was common pleas judge of Lackawanna county, Pa., before the 28th was called up.

Gen. Van Hooten has been commanding the Ranger Training Center at Fort Benning, Ga.

SAM MASON IS CALLED FRAUD BY SENATE UNIT

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—A Senate subcommittee today denounced pudgy Sam Mason as "a complete fraud" who worked a confidence racket "to swindle approximately a quarter million dollars from his victims," on promises to obtain cheap leases of government property.

Chairman Hoey (D.-N.C.) of the Senate's subcommittee on investigations, announced a federal grand jury is starting an inquiry into Mason's activities. Witnesses told the subcommittee Mason said government, in fear of atomic attack, was planning a vast underground construction program, and many buildings would become "surplus."

Hoey said in a speech prepared for the Senate that he was filing a formal report covering the "fantastic machinations" of Mason, a New Yorker who has said his real name is Samuel D. Mussman. He lost a leg in World War I and draws $195 monthly in government compension.

Testifying before the Hoey group, Mason said he has paid no income tax since 1929. He said he had a scheme to bribe public officials, and asked the senators :

"What's wrong with that?" Mason acknowledged collecting around $100,000 from five witnesses against him, but said he turned it all over to a mysterious Vince Eungart, in Washington. He said Eungart was to use the money to obtain leases, but has gone to Australia.

The report of the Hoey subcommittee—a unit of the Senate expenditures committee—dealt sharply with a Philadelphia newspaperman, Bohdan Katamay, editor of the Ukrainian newspaper "America," and two Greek Catholic priests who testified two weeks ago that Mason fleeced them of more than $200,000.

The report said that in fairness to the three "it must be pointed out that each of these men are foreign-born and may have been misled, partially due to their lack of understanding and interpretation of the English language." But it added that:

"The subcommittee cannot condone the actions of these persons. . ."

The report reiterated that Mason has a criminal record dating from 1922.

He Is Her Hero Too

Little Cassandra Commiskey, 3½, watches in wonder as President Truman (left) makes a national hero of her daddy, Lieut. Henry Alfred Commiskey, 24, of Rockaway, N. J., by bestowing the Congressional Medal of Honor for his killing of seven Communists in a hand-to-hand combat after a marine charge on a Korean hilltop. Lieut. Commiskey's wife smiles at center. Watching the little girl with amusement are Deputy Defense Secretary Robert Lovett (upper left) and Gen. Clifton B. Cates, marine corps commandant (right). Lieut Commiskey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Commiskey, live at Hattiesburg, Miss.

RECOUNT VOTE FOR MONT ALTO

Three members of the Mont Alto election board were summoned before the Franklin County official return board Wednesday by Judge Edmund C. Wingerd to begin a recount of votes cast in the borough at the July primary election.

Saying "numerous discrepancies" were found by the official return board in the return made from Mont Alto after last Tuesday's election, Judge Wingerd told the election board members "I want you to count your vote again and make a full report."

The trio — William U. Verdier, judge of elections; Nina Dolton, majority inspector, and Helen C. Barkdoll, minority inspector — began immediately the task assigned them.

Figures Disagreed

In directing the re-count, Judge Wingerd said the board's returns listed both on the sealed and unsealed return sheets did not agree in many instances with the tally sheet.

It was learned from members of the official count board that 18 blank ballots were included in the Mont Alto election box which was first opened Tuesday at Judge Wingerd's direction. The Mont Alto board's judge of elections certified that 201 votes were cast in the borough. Stubs of ballots issued, however, showed only 183 actual voters.

Each polling place official receives a base pay of $6 a day, whether one or a hundred votes are cast. However, if 101 are cast that one ballot entitles each worker to an extra $2. Since there were 201 votes reported at Mont Alto each worker would receive $10.

RITCHIE WORKER HURT

Wayne Hubler, 27, Waynesboro, shovel operator on the Ritchie project, suffered a crushed right hand shortly after midnight Wednesday. His hand was crushed between a backing truck and the control platform of the shovel he was operating. He had contusions and lacerations of the left hand. He was treated at the Waynesboro hospital.

CAN'T FOOL O'TOOLE

Hempstead, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP) — What's in a name to the wrong cop. A motorist tried to talk his way out of a speeding ticket by saying he was Patrolman O'Toole's brother-in-law. The driver didn't know he was talking to O'Toole — Patrolman William O'Toole. He got the speeding ticket.

MANY STATES WOULD CHECK FEDERAL TAXES

(By The Associated Press)

A move to amend the constitution to limit the amount of tax money the federal government can collect and keep is under way in the states.

Legislatures in 26 states have adopted resolutions in favor of such an amendment at one time or another in the past 11 years, but six later voted to cancel the approval.

The resolutions, or memorials, are addressed to Congress. The goal of the movement is approval of such resolutions by at least 32 legislatures. It's a long, involved process. This is the legal background:

Wyoming First

Article five of the constitution says that Congress, "on the application of the legislatures of two thirds of the states (32), shall call a convention for proposing amendments." Such amendments become part of the constitution when ratified thereafter by legislatures in three fourths (36) of the states.

The Wyoming legislature was the first to approve the tax amendment proposal, in 1939.

Resolutions have taken two forms. Both ask Congress to call a convention to propose a change in the nation's basic law.

Two Types of Resolutions

The resolution most widely adopted also suggests that the 16th amendment — the one that has given Congress the power to tax incomes since 1913 — be repealed and that a new amendment put a ceiling of 25 percent on federal taxes on incomes, gifts and inheritances.

The other type of resolution seeks, among other things, to force the federal government to return some of its tax money to the states.

Neither of the limitations would be in effect while the U.S. was engaged in war.

Pennsylvania Has Acted

A survey by the Associated Press shows resolutions have been approved by legislatures in these states:

Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Texas, Utah, Wisconsin, New Mexico and Wyoming.

But the legislatures of Alabama, Illinois, Kentucky, Rhode Island, Texas and Wisconsin later voted — some as much as nine years later — to rescind the resolutions.

The Pennsylvania and Montana legislatures approved the 25 percent limit resolutions, but the governors of both states vetoed them. This raised a question. Are they valid? There is no clear-cut answer.

Commonwealth Secretary Gene D. Smith, of Pennsylvania, said his office recognized the resolution as valid. It was sent to Congress in 1943. Charles Huppe, Montana's first assistant attorney general, said the effect of the governor's veto is "a wide open legal question."

The Iowa legislature enacted a resolution in 1941, rescinded it in 1945, then re-enacted it this year.

The Western Tax Council, Inc., organized as a non-profit corporation in Chicago in 1939, has been urging legislatures to approve the 25 percent ceiling resolution.

Final decisions on points of validity, including cases of governors' vetoes and votes to annul earlier legislative approval, will have to be made by Congress.

Sheriff's Sale

IN PURSUANCE of a Writ of FIERI FACIAS issuing out of the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, and to me directed, will be exposed to Public Sale on SATURDAY, the 25th day of August, at 10 o'clock D.S.T., in the forenoon at the Court House in the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pa., the following Real Estate, viz.:

ALL those two tracts of land situate partly in the Borough of Abbottstown, Adams County, Pennsylvania, and partly in Paradise Township, York County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

TRACT #1: BEGINNING at a limestone for a corner in the public road leading to Pigeon Hills; thence by same South 20½ degrees East 15.2 perches to a stone; thence by same South 42 degrees East 21.15 perches to a stone; thence by lands now or formerly of George S. Gise and Beulah Altland South 86 degrees West 46.8 perches to a stone; thence by land now or formerly of Jerome Border North 32½ degrees East (this course in certain earlier deeds sometimes erroneously designated as North 32½ degrees West) 14.8 perches to a stone; thence by same North 41½ degrees East 28.96 perches to the place of BEGINNING. CONTAINING 10 Acres and 142 perches, more or less.

Said two tracts of land being the same which Amanda Kraber, widow, by her deed dated December 8, 1947, recorded in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds of Adams County, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book 181 at page 548, did sell and convey unto Harvey S. Payne and E. Louise Payne, husband and wife.

Improved with 2½ story frame dwelling and stable.

Seized and taken into execution as the property of Harvey S. Payne and E. Louise Payne, husband and wife, and to be sold by me

DORSEY J. SCHULTZ, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Gettysburg, Pa., July 26, 1951.

Ten per cent of the purchase is payable in cash immediately after the sale and the balance of the purchase price, plus making, docketing and recording of deed, is payable in cash five days prior to the return day of the writ of execution; if conditions are not complied with the property will be resold and the defaulting purchaser will be liable for the deficiency, if any.

East Berlin

East Berlin—Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Myers and family, York, were recent guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orpheus W. Myers, and accompanied them to the Bushey reunion. Mr. Myers, Sr., marked his 81st birthday this week, and is in fine health.

A family party was conducted during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Cooley when his relatives came to the home with an ice cream and cake treat to honor Mr. Dooley on his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Diehl and daughters, Phyllis and Beverly, and son, Larry, Everett, were recently entertained at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Glenn Snyder, near Red Run church.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wisler and daughter, Susan Jane, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spangler and children, Ronald and Diane, have returned home after a vacation trip to Ocean City, Md., for several days.

Charles B. Wallace, Sr., who is a York county public school teacher during the school term, is spending a part of the summer pursuing a course of study at Western Maryland college, Westminster, Md., to prepare him for an advanced degree.

The house on West King street formerly occupied by Carl Fitzkee is now being tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Federal, who recently moved from "Five Points."

Members of the Loyal Sons and Sunshine Makers classes of Red Run church assisted relatives of a veteran class teacher, Mrs. Philip W. Hodgson, Jr., in tendering her a birthday party at her home as a token of appreciation for her 25 years of service.

CZECHS TO LOSE TARIFF "BREAKS"

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—President Truman cut off all American tariff concessions to Communist Czechoslovakia Wednesday. The State department Tuesday announced the decision to take such action.

It became the second time this government has slapped out at Czechoslovakia since the arrest there last April of Associated Press Correspondent William N. Oatis. Oatis recently was sentenced to ten years in prison after a spy trial denounced here as a farce.

On June 2, the State Department announced a ban on travel by American citizens to Czechoslovakia.

The decision to cut off trade concessions was announced in a statement circulated among the nations belonging to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). They are scheduled to meet at Geneva September 17.

Although the most recent move has broken off contact trade relations between the U.S. and Czechoslovakia, further trade would not be barred. But the Czechs will lose competitive advantages in American markets and American merchants would lose similar advantages in Czechoslovakia.

The State Department proposed: (a) withdrawal from Czechoslovakia of "the benefits of trade-agreement tariff concessions," and (b) termination of "all the obligations existing" between the United States and Czechoslovakia through the General Agreement of Tariffs and Trade.

Senators Want FBI Data On Subversives

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — Senators McCarran (D.-Nev.) and Ferguson (R.-Mich.) urged today that FBI reports be made available to Congress to help it backstop against possible infiltration of the government by subversives.

The two lawmakers made their proposal in the wake of testimony by a former Russian general that the head of Soviet military intelligence had spoken in the mid-1930's of Owen Lattimore and Joseph Barnes as "our men."

This testimony was given before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee on Tuesday by Alexander Barmine, a former Red army intelligence officer who now heads the Russian-language unit of the State Department's Voice of America program.

Barmine told the committee he fled the Soviet fold in 1937 to keep from being "liquidated." He served in the U. S. Army in World War II and became a U. S. citizen in 1942. He is married to but separated from a granddaughter of former President Theodore Roosevelt.

ROTARIANS VISIT SHOE FACTORY

The Littlestown Rotary club was conducted on a tour of the Littonian Shoe company in conjunction with the weekly meeting Tuesday evening. Prior to the tour a dinner meeting was held at Schottie's hotel. A business meeting followed with President Charles E. Ritter in charge. Thomas C. McSherry, acting chairman of the Vocational Service committee, presided.

During this meeting, Luther W. Ritter, secretary of the Littonian Shoe company, explained briefly the organization and present management of the company. Mr. Ritter said the company began making baby shoes in 1936 at its present location, which building has been much enlarged since that time, and the present number of employees is 66. Approximately 12,000 pairs of shoes are made each week. These shoes are shipped to foreign countries as well as for domestic use. The Rotarians then went to the factory where Foremen Wilbur Reck, Irvin Null and Preston L. Myers explained the operations in their departments.

Guests present at the Tuesday meeting included the Rev. Ariel R. Turner and J. S. Senten, of the Hanover club; Dr. L. M. Hitchcock and Stan Trevis of the Westminster club. It was announced that the Community Service committee headed by Nevaeh A. Crouse, chairman, will be in charge of soliciting in the community for blood donors for the American Red Cross. The quota for Littlestown has been set for 200 pints of blood, and factory workers and organizations will be solicited for this amount. Cards for donors have also been issued to the Rotarians and other clubs. Ladies Night will be observed next Tuesday evening when the Rotarians, Rotaryanns and other guests will attend the stage play, "Pride and Prejudice," being presented at the Allenberry playhouse.

Arrests Announced

Chief of Police Albert H. Miller, Jr., has announced the following arrests made recently in the Borough of Littlestown: July 27, Lewis U. Motter, Jr., 509 Prince street, Littlestown, charged with failing to stop for a flashing red light; July 26, Clarence Riebling, Westminster R. 2, failing to yield the right of way; July 22, George A. Davis, Baltimore, failing to stop at a red light; July 27, Thomas L. Bucher, 529 South Queen street, Littlestown, failing to stop at a red light; July 27, Stuart C. Peterson, Littlestown R. 1, failing to stop at a flashing red light; July 27, Irving Bierer, Tipton apartments, East Middle street, Gettysburg, failing to stop for a red light; July 27, Emory W. Wintrode, 47 Crouse Park, Littlestown, failing to stop for a red light; July 29, Francis Damiloski, Littlestown R. 1, failing to heed a flashing red light; July 29, Charles E. and Helen Myers, Foundry avenue, Littlestown, charged with disorderly conduct.

Chief of Police Miller also reported that he recently conducted two accident investigations. Thursday, July 26, Clarence Riebling, Westminster R. 2, was driving a sedan west on East King street at 6:50 a.m., and Samuel C. Wildasin, Littlestown R. 2, was driving a sedan west on East King street, when Riebling pulled to the right side of the road with his car and attempted to make a left turn when the two automobiles collided, causing damage estimated at $125 to the Riebling car and $50 to the car driven by Wildasin. On Monday Donald L. Smith, Hanover, driving south on Maple avenue at 11:40 a.m. attempted to turn at the south end of the community playground when the machine hit a locust tree, causing an estimated damage to the automobile at $175.

The Senior choir and the Junior choir of Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns, will rehearse together this evening at 8 o'clock in preparation for the annual Homecoming celebration to be held in September.

The annual public picnic sponsored by the Sunday school of Grace Lutheran church will be held on Saturday in the social hall. Roast chicken an dham suppers will be served beginning at 4 o'clock by the Women of the church.

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Berlin, Aug. 2 (AP) — An epidemic of typhoid fever has made more than 1,000 persons ill in the Russian zone of Thuringia, the West Berlin newspaper Telegraf reported today. Soviet-controlled newspapers have made no mention of these reports. The Telegraf said the epidemic spread over a wide area and that youth summer camps and theaters were closed and public gatherings forbidden.

Manila, Aug. 2 (AP)—The typhoon that hit northern Luzon island on Monday injured ten persons, heavily damaged cities and crops, and brought near-record rainfall. These reports came to Manila today over communications lines partly restored after a 24-hour black-out.

Winters in Iceland actually are warmer than in 31 northern U. S. states, according to the National Geographic Society.

NOTICE

Notice hereby is given that the Burgess and the Borough Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, contemplate opening and laying out a public street as described in the ordinance annexed hereto; and that objections thereto shall be heard at a stated meeting of the Borough Council at the Council Chamber in Gettysburg at 8:00 o'clock, D.S.T. Monday evening, September 3, 1951. Said ordinance will be presented for final adoption at said meeting on September 3, 1951.

By Order of Council
ANNA B. DRACHA,
Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE ORDAINING, ESTABLISHING, LAYING OUT AND OPENING A STREET IN THE BOROUGH OF GETTYSBURG, EXTENDING FROM THE SOUTHERN PROPERTY LINE OF WEST MIDDLE STREET SOUTHWARDLY OVER LAND OF HERBERT G. HAMME AND NELL ISABEL HAMME, HUSBAND AND WIFE, TO BE KNOWN AS HAY STREET.

BE IT ENACTED AND ORDAINED by the Burgess and the Borough Council of the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, and it hereby is enacted and ordained by authority of the same:

That a public street be ordained, established, laid out and opened in the Borough of Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania, for a uniform width of fifty (50) feet, thirty (30) feet on each side of the following line to-wit:

BEGINNING at a point at the Southern side of West Middle Street, which point is North eighty-four (84) degrees, thirty (30) minutes West, one hundred twenty-five and sixty-five hundredths (125.65) feet from the corner of land of Herbert G. Hamme and Nell Isabel Hamme, husband and wife, and lands now or formerly of Jacob Stock and extending thence South eighteen (18) degrees West, four hundred sixty-nine (469) feet more or less to line of land formerly of Elmer Dillman.

That said street include a roadway thirty (30) feet in width, fifteen (15) feet on each side of the above described center line, and a sidewalk ten (10) feet in width on each side thereof.

That said street be now placed on the plot of ordained streets and alleys of the Borough of Gettysburg and that the same be now opened for the use of the public and that it be known as Hay street.

Enacted and ordained into an ordinance this 16th day of July, A. D., 1951.

H. M. OYLER,
President.

ATTEST:
ANNA B. DRACHA,
Secretary.

Approved by me this 16th day of July, A. D., 1951.

News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

CHORUS BEGINS PRACTICE FOR OLD HOME WEEK

The Emmitsburg Community chorus set up mainly to sing at the Old Home Week community vespers Sunday evening, September 2, held its first rehearsal Monday evening at the high school. William Simpson, director, was in charge. Mrs. Harold Hoke was selected for accompanist and Mrs. Marie Rosensteel as secretary.

Mr. Simpson urged more people to turn out for rehearsals. It was decided that rehearsals will be held evrey Monday night at the high school, from 8 to 9:30 p.m.. Gov. McKeldin has been invited to be present and speak at the Sunday night program.

An added attraction to the previously announced program for Old Home Week will be a bicycle parade Saturday, September 1, at 1:30 p.m. headed by a Hillbilly band, and a bicycle race at 3 p.m. on West Main street. The bicycle parade and race will be sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McDonnell.

Decorators To Meet

A meeting of the decorating committee will be held tonight at the fire hall, with a commercial decorating firm's representative present. The Indian Lookout Sportsmen's club of Emmitsburg is in charge of the decorating with A. W. McCleaf as chairman.

At the weekly meeting of the joint committees on Wednesday night, reports were given on the progress. Dr. J. J. Dillon, chairman of the carnival committee, said difficulty was being experienced in obtaining rides and that it might be necessary to continue the carnival through September 5.

One of the highlights of the celebration will be the parade and crowning of the queen of beauty on opening night, August 30. The parade will move at 6:30 o'clock and the queen will be crowned at the carnival grounds at 10:30 o'clock.

Plan Big Parade

The beauty contest is being conducted by the parade committee and is open to every girl between the ages of 16 and 21 in the Emmitsburg district. The contestants will be judged on personality, personal appearance and popularity. All names must be in the hands of the parade committee by August 20. The winner and her attendants, the runners-up, will ride on the parade committee's float, dressed in evening gowns. A trophy will be presented to the queen.

The parade committee is composed of John S. Hollinger, Harold Hoke, Eugene Rodgers, Guy Baker and Edward Houck. Entries in the beauty contest and in the parade can be made at Houck's store or by addressing the parade committee, box 160, Emmitsburg. The committee has already received a number of entries including bands, drum and bugle corps and fire companies.

Parade Prizes

Prizes will be given for the following: Outstanding drum and bugle corps; best band; best appearing fire apparatus with marchers; fire company coming greatest distance. Prizes will also be given for floats, best decorated bicycle, funniest costume and most elaborate costume, and to marching units such as veteran organizations, fire companies, auxiliaries, saddle horses, ponies, and driving rigs, old and modern.

Historical Display

A historical display, using the show windows of the various business places, is to be an important part of the celebration. Mrs. Lawrence Orendorff is chairman, and will personally collect articles for display in the windows. She also will attend to the work of arranging displays. The following suggestions were made for these displays: Old wearing apparel, old pottery, art paintings, statuary, antiques, old Bibles, quilts, hand work and linens. Mrs. Orendorff has been one of the judges for the Thurmont bicentennial historical display.

Other Features

Other features of the home coming celebration will be the turtle races, with merchants of the town and community sponsoring turtles; tours of places of historical interest about the town and community; local talent shows Thursday and Friday nights at St. Joseph's high school auditorium; carnival nightly on the Community field; baseball games, including an old timers' team; Sunday home coming services at the various churches; September 2, bonfire, fireworks and water festival. B. H. Boyle is the general chairman of the home coming celebration, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and with all the community organizations cooperating for the benefit of the Emmitsburg Memorial Building fund.

Emerichs Are Hosts At Grange Meeting

The Emmitsburg Grange met Wednesday night at the home of grange members, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Emrich. The master, Norman Shriver, presided at the meeting which was held on the lawn and was attended by about 75 members and their families. Reports were received from Miss Catherine Wivell, who attended the Maryland State Youth Leadership training school and from Mr. Shriver, who attended the national lecturers' conference at Ithaca, N. Y.

Announcements were made by secretary Mrs. Clara Harner of the Pomona meeting for Frederick county to be held at New Market Saturday, the Howard county Pomona meeting to be held at Woodbine Monday, August 6, and the Creagerstown Grange meeting Friday night. The Emmitsburg grange will give the literary program at the Creagerstown meeting Friday night in charge of the grange lecturer, Mrs. Edgar Emrich. The grange accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baumgardner to hold the next meeting at their home on Wednesday, August 15. Each member is to bring wieners and rolls for a roast after the meeting and other refreshments will be furnished by the hosts. A watermelon party was held following the regular meeting of the grange.

Men's Class Plans Its Annual Outing

The annual men's outing sponsored by the Men's class of the Emmitsburg Lutheran Sunday school will be held Thursday, August 23, from 2 to 10 p.m. This will be the 15th annual outing for men and boys sponsored by the class and the usual invitation to the public is extended. Games will be enjoyed in the afternoon and evening including horseshoe pitching and a game of softball between the old men and the young fellows.

Suppers will be served from 6 o'clock and there will be a program of entertainment in the later evening. The committees are: Place, J. D. Adams, Rev. Philip Bower and Edward Smith; refreshments and cooks, Robert Saylor, Roy Maxell, Robert Daugherty and Norman Shriver; entertainment, Ralph McDonnell; games, Clarence Hahn, Richard Saylor, Carroll Frock, Jr.; invitations, J. D. Adams, W. B. Shank, Harry Troxell and Rev. Bower.

JAPANESE FACE FOOD, SHIPPING PROBLEMS ANEW

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Japanese, with whom we shall soon sign a peace treaty, face tough going to survive.

The eighty million of them, crowded into the four islands which are all that's left of Japan, have to import to survive.

That goes for food and for raw materials for their factories. There's nothing new about that. They had to do it before the war.

Although they must import at least 15 percent of their food, they haven't been doing too badly in that field. Their food standard now is 95 percent of pre-war.

Had A Lot Of Help

But they've had a lot of help from us in that. The U. S., as the occupying power, has spent $2,000,000,000 in the past six years to supply Japan with food and other things.

(After the treaty we'll probably have to keep on helping the Japanese to some extent, although the how and how much are vague at the moment. Right now there's no plan before Congress to give standard economic aid.)

Aside from food, the rest of the Japanese living standard is only 80 percent of pre-war. Japan is in the peculiar position of being the most industrialized nation in Asia but has no raw materials of its own. It has to import everything, including rubber, oil, coal, iron ore. (It built synthetic oil and rubber plants but we shut them down. When the treaty is signed, the Japanese can start them again.)

Shipping Is Big Problem

But Japan had overseas possessions to draw upon for raw materials—Korea, Manchuria, Formosa—and it was able to import from other countries whatever else it needed, mostly at low cost. (Under the peace treaty Japan not only loses all its overseas possessions but all its assets and investments in the 50 nations which were at war with her.)

So, to keep going, Japan must import at least 15 percent of its food and all its raw materials. And that brings in another major problem: shipping.

Before the war Japan had a large merchant fleet which enabled her to import the materials she needed at low shipping costs, and the cost of the materials was low when she could buy them from Asia's low-cost countries.

Small Merchant Fleet

Because of the low-cost circle—in shipping, buying, and manufacturing—she was able to sell on world markets at low cost and at a rate of profit which enabled her to keep expanding her factories.

Now her merchant fleet is only 20 percent of pre-war. Unless she can build up that fleet, to keep down her shipping rates, she'll have to hire foreign ships at great cost, boosting the cost of what she manufactures.

(The British, for one, are concerned about any expansion of Japanese shipping. A large Japanese merchant fleet, hauling not only Japanese goods but the goods of other nations to make money for Japan, would rival the British merchant fleet which is working the same side of the street.)

Problem For The West

At any rate, to keep Japan as an ally after the treaty, the western powers will have to help the Japanese with raw materials even though, because of their own rearmament program, they're hard-pressed for raw materials of their own.

If they put tight limits on what Japan can have, Japanese recovery will be tightly limited. If it becomes too limited, the Japanese may feel it necessary to make deals with China and Russia for materials at lower cost.

Since this country and its allies don't want any too close tie-ups between Japan and China and Russia, Japan's stability will not only be a problem for Japan but for the West, too.

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 2 (AP)—Searchers speculated cautiously on whether "yellow objects" sighted off the rugged Alaskan coast 30 miles southwest of Yakutat might be from a Korean airlift C-54 which vanished early last Saturday with 38 aboard. They also awaited identification of a nautical chart catalog found near Knight Island in Prince William Sound.

Littlestown

Littlestown — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Furlow, Littlestown R. 2, have purchased a 107-acre farm located in Carroll county, Md., near Silver Run, from Mr. and Mrs. C. Melvin Clouser.

John Smith, Elizabethtown, spent the week-end at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Staub, East King street.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Albert H. Miller, Jr., and children, Barbe, Albert, III, and Shelley, East King street, attended the annual picnic for the Fraternal Order of Police of York county, held on Sunday at White Oak park, York. Mrs. Miller and the children spent Thursday and Friday visiting with relatives and friends in Hanover.

George N. Study, Jacksonville, Fla., appeared on the television show, "For Us The Living," in Florida on Monday. Mr. Study, son of Mrs. Annie Kelly, South Queen street, was graduated from the Littlestown high school in 1928, and later from the University of Virginia. He was admitted to the bar at the age of 23 and is an attorney for the Jacksonville Coach company.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Flickinger and daughter, Carol, North Queen street, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mummert, Brushtown, have returned home after spending four days in Atlantic City.

Cpl. Wayne L. Crouse is spending a furlough at the home of his father, Robert L. Crouse, West King street extended. Cpl. Crouse has just completed a 16 weeks photography course at Lowry Air Force base, Denver, Colo., where he graduated with a 4.1 average, raking the highest in the school. On August 8 he will report to Fort Kilmer, New Brunswick, N. J., where he will receive a European theater assignment.

Guests for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin F. Breighner and daughter, Carolyn, Kump apartments, included Mrs. Breighner's mother, Mrs. A. N. Mellott, and her sister, Mrs. William Jackson, and daughter, Mary Margaret, Ambridge.

Cpl. Harvey E. Miller, Jr., Arlington, Va., spent the week-end at the home of his mother, Mrs. Minnie Miller, and family, West King street.

Cpl. LeRoy J. Miller is spending a ten-day furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller, near town. Corporal Miller is stationed at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Charles Cromer, Milwaukee, Wis., has returned home after spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Emma Cromer Fair, who recently suffered a heart attack and is in serious condition at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller.

S. A. Theodore E. Bair arrived on Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Bair, and daughter, Joan, Littlestown R. 2, to spend a 15 day leave following completion of his 12 weeks of boot training at the Bainbridge Naval base, from where he was graduated last Saturday. On August 10, Bair will report back to Bainbridge for further training.

Mervin A. Miller and daughter, Naomi C. Schwartz, near town, were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reimschissel, Waynesboro. On Monday, Mr. Miller and daughter visited with friends in West Fairview.

New Oxford

New Oxford—Miss Regina E. Mummert has returned after spending a vacation at Atlantic City, N. J.

The infant son of Conway and Nadine Bevenour Dettinburn has been named Daniel Robert.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gring, who has been a guest for more than a year at the Kuhn Convalescent Home east of town, has been entertaining a group of relatives from Newport, her former home, who have been spending a vacation here.

Mrs. Harry J. Sterner and family had as a recent house guest her sister, Mrs. Clinton Null, formerly of this section, who has now returned to her York home.

Mrs. Herschel Shortlidge and daughter Gail, near Philadelphia, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. C. Clark Brown.

The local high school band will play Saturday at the picnic of Christ Reformed church near Littlestown.

Women of the Ladies Auxiliary of the local Fire company have been spending a large part of the week obtaining and preparing food products to be used at their coming fire company carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Little have had as house guests their son, the Rev. George Little, who is on vacation, with his wife and two sons from the Pittsburgh area.

SNAKES JUST CANNOT STAND HUMAN BEINGS

By HAL BOYLE

Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 2 (AP) — The one thing a snake cannot stand without a chance to rest its eye balls is the sight of people.

Whether this is a criticism of human beings or a lack of character in snakes doesn't concern Earl Brockelsby.

With him it is just another fact of life. He operates the Black Hills Reptile Gardens, which draws 200,000 tourists a year to see the most varied collection of northern American snakes in the world.

Ninety percent of his business is concentrated in the five-months from May through September, but many of his snakes cannot even look at people for that period of the year without help or without dying.

Viper Is Worse

People are so repulsive to even the more rugged reptiles that one of his 25-year-old alligators has almost to be forcibly fed fish — but the alligator still enjoys snapping at tourists.

Since the Garden of Eden most people have not only distrusted snakes, they have misunderstood them. And most of what they feel they know about them is wrong.

For example, the average American believes the cobra is probably the deadliest snake in the world. This is not so. In Brockelsby's wriggly gardens there are several cobras but they are not nearly so dangerous as a small country cousin of theirs from India called the Russell's viper.

40,000 Die Yearly

Brockelsby has one. It looked slender and innocent behind the security of a thick glass display window, but he said of it:

"Some 40,000 people a year die of snake bite in the world. Of these, probably 30,000 are killed by Russell's vipers, and most people have never even heard of them. They put the blame on the cobra — or such well-known snakes as the American rattlesnake."

He keeps about 1,300 reptiles on view. Some 50 collectors around the world regularly send him new specimens. Each year he brings in from all parts of the country earnest young herpetologists — snake students — to lecture to the tourists. They are glad to come because they can see more snakes here and study them longer than they can anywhere else.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2 (AP)—Arthur C. Kaufmann, former chairman of the southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of the American Red Cross, believes the chapter will lose $1,000,000 each year if it is excluded from the city's united fund campaign.

Kaufmann resigned Friday with eight other officials in protest against the National Red Cross policy which prohibits chapter participation in fund raising campaigns with other welfare groups.

San Francisco, Aug. 2 (AP)—Lieut. General Albert C. Wedemeyer, who in World War II helped shape this nation's military policy in both Europe and Asia, retired Monday from the army. The tall, slender general, now 54 years old, bade farewell to the Sixth Army, which he had commanded since 1949, with headquarters in San Francisco's Presidio.

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — Senator Martin (R.-Pa.) asked a Senate Appropriations subcommittee Monday to restore to the army civil functions money bill $1,675,000 disallowed by the House Committee for flood control and navigation in Pennsylvania.

In a statement prepared for the subcommittee considering the House-passed Bill, Martin asked restoration of $775,000 for completion of the Newberry section of the Williamsport flood control project.

United Nations, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP) — A new United Nations commission has begun to search for more than half a million prisoners of World War II who have never come home to their families. Most of them are Italians, Germans and Japanese locked away in Russia whose government has spurned all pleas for information or action.

STATES TAKING NEW STEPS ON MENTAL HEALTH

By FRANK CAREY
(Associated Press Science Reporter)

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—The 48 states are taking new steps to cope with their mental health problems.

All of them are spending more money than ever on community programs designed to prevent actual mental illness among an estimated 10,000,000 persons suffering from emotional disturbances.

Some have stepped up activities aimed at overcoming the handicaps which the American Psychiatric Association (APA) says beset all the nation's state and county mental hospitals and to some extent private and federal hospitals.

These handicaps, says the APA, include overcrowding, shortages of personnel and "indifferent" community support.

Half Are Mental

State, county, local and private hospitals have an estimated 550,000 mental patients in all, approximately 95 per cent of them in some 200 state hospitals.

In addition, some 50,000 patients are under treatment for mental illness in about 125 Veterans Administration (VA) hospitals. VA has another 10,000 suffering from mental illness along with some physical ailment.

Mental disease experts estimate that about half the persons hospitalized throughout the country for all types of illness are mental patients.

Many Make Headway

Leaders of the American Psychiatric Association say that while no up-to-date nationwide survey is available concerning conditions in state hospitals, they have reports of headway in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Texas, California, Minnesota, New York, Massachusetts, Virginia, Illinois, Ohio and North Carolina. They add that there may be other programs that have not yet come to their attention.

APA says there is evidence that individual hospitals in many of the states are meeting with increasing success in enlisting support for hospitals along such lines as volunteer social and recreational work.

Under the Federal Hospital Construction Act, 54 mental hospital projects are under construction in 21 states and in Puerto Rico, providing for either new hospitals or additions to existing ones.

The projects include 11 in Oklahoma, eight in West Virginia, four in South Carolina, three each in Arkansas, Indiana and New Jersey; two each in Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, Tennessee and Puerto Rico and one each in Delaware, Florida, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Oregon, Texas, Utah and Wisconsin.

23 Projects Completed

The United States government provides between 33⅓ and 66 2/3 percent of the construction funds. The rest comes from state, local or private subscription funds.

Six projects are in the pre-construction stage—one each in Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Nevada, New Jersey and Puerto Rico.

Since the act was enacted several years ago, 23 projects have been completed—six in South Carolina, four in Arkansas, three each in North Carolina and Oklahoma, two in New Jersey, and one each in Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Nevada and Oregon.

Those 23 projects have provided accommodations for more than 10,000 patients.

Need 330,000 Beds

But federal officials say there is still need for some 330,000 additional mental hospital beds. This would bring the total up to some 745,200 rates as "acceptable." All states need some additional beds, the officials say. Bed needs are rated on the basis of five for every 1,000 persons.

As of June, 1951, there were some 67,700 beds rated as "non-acceptable" by state agencies, housed in buildings classified as fire or health hazards or obsolete in construction.

Under the National Mental Health Act there is continuing support for research, personnel training and community mental health programs within the states.

States Not Lagging

No federal funds are alloted for the institutional care of patients. Grants for research and personnel training are not made to state governments but to universities, hospitals and other institutions and to individuals.

Funds for community mental health programs—including clinics—are alloted directly to the states—with the provision that the states match every $2 of federal money with $1 of their own.

During the past fiscal year the states appropriated almost twice as much as was alloted to them by the federal government. Previously they had lagged behind.

Badly Overcrowded

The most recent comprehensive survey of state mental health programs was published in June, 1950, by the Council of State Governments. It listed as one of its conclusions:

"The scope of the mental health problem is so vast as almost to stagger the imagination."

Out of some 200 state hospitals queried, 190 responded to the council's questionnaire. Only 39 reported that at that time they could handle additional patients without overcrowding.

Approximately 43 per cent of the hospitals reporting overcrowding said they were more than 20 per cent overcrowded.

Harney

The Ladies Aid Society and Brotherhood of St. Paul's, Harney, will meet Tuesday evening, August 7th. The program committee for the Aid society is as follows: Mrs. Wesley Mummert, Mrs. Chester Moose and Mrs. George Maylor.

Miss Connie Haines, of Reese, Md., returned home on Saturday evening after spending a week at the home of Mrs. Margaret Haines and daughter, Mary.

Mrs. Hannah Eckenrode returned home on Thursday after several weeks visit in Baltimore at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kalbfleish and daughter, Caler, and Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Eckenrode and family.

Mrs. George Bower and children, Mary, Jeannette and Samuel, left Monday morning to visit at the home of Mrs. Frank Bower and daughter, Margaret, in Pottsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clutz, of Harney, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wade Brown and son, Timothy, of near Littlestown, on Sunday to visit Sister Flora Belle Ohler in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haines and family, of Sykesville, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hahn, of Harney, visited Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Haines and daughter, Mary.

There will be no Sunday school or worship service on Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Yingling and children, Audrey, Daniel and Donald, visited Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Brown, near Littlestown. Barbara, Sally, Ronald and Edward Brown accompanied the Yinglings.

Elaborate Costumes For 'Pride, Prejudice'

Actors and actresses at Allenberry Playhouse, Boiling Springs, are wearing more than $10,000 worth of elaborate costumes these days in Richard North Gage's elaborate production of "Pride and Prejudice."

The dramatization of Jane Austen's famous novel calls for the full Allenberry cast to wear the colorful garb of 1830, when women's styles called for the high waistlines and long tubular skirts of the Empire mode. Men wore gay colors, canary yellow, scarlet and mauve, with ruffled shirts, high stocks and flowing cloaks.

"Pride and Prejudice" will be Allenberry's only production this year to play two weeks. It opened July 30 and will play through August 11.

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP) — A House bill authorizing the exemption of children entering first game in public schools from taking physical examinations received approval of the Senate Tuesday night.

The measure was sent back that to the House, however, for agreement on an amendment stipulating that children would be exempted from such physical examinations when they had been examined nine months before entering school.

unceasing war on a world of killers

LEEUWENHOEK, in 1683, was the first to disturb the privacy of the teeming bustle of the unseen world. The "wretched wee beasties" cavorting innocently under his lens were later indicted and convicted by Koch and Pasteur. Unbeknown to Leeuwenhoek, he had discovered a vicious and unseen world of killers, now known as bacteria, or germs.

The span of time between Leeuwenhoek and Pasteur was almost 200 years. Only an average lifetime has passed since Pasteur's experiments, during which practically all we know about disease and its treatment has been discovered. Our knowledge is expanding at an ever-increasing rate. The pharmacist works with the physician in bringing newer and better medication into the sickroom.

EXPECT TRUMAN MAY WITHDRAW CONCESSIONS TO RUSSIAN TRADE

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—A series of steps by which President Truman is expected to withdraw trade concessions to Russia and its European satellites was described today by informed State Department officials.

Step one: A presidential proclamation issued yesterday to establish the basic authority for carrying out a recent congressional order. The order instructed the President to cancel concessions to the Reds.

Yesterday's proclamation was accompanied by a letter from Mr. Truman to Secretary of the Treasury Snyder. Snyder was ordered to deny trade benefits to 13 Communist controlled areas in eastern Europe and Asia, including Red China. The effective date is August 31.

Other Areas Covered

Mr. Truman also instructed Snyder to embargo imports from China of ermine, fox, kolinsky, marten, mink, muskrat and weasel furs.

Other areas covered by the ban on trade benefits are Albania, Estonia, East Germany, Communist controlled parts of Indochina, North Korea, the Kurile islands, Latvia, Lithuania, Outer Mongolia, Romania, Southern Sakhalin and Tanna Tuva.

With the exception of Romania these are areas which had no firm trade agreements or treaties with the United States. State Department officials said there was therefore no reason why action could not be taken now. Action against Moscow-bloc nations with which the U.S. has tighter trade treaties will take longer.

Warning Notices

Romania had a trade agreement subject to cancellation on 30 days notice. Notice was given a month ago.

Notices of intent to end existing trade compacts also have been given by the United States to Russia, Bulgaria, Hungary and Poland. However, in each of these cases a longer period of time must elapse until the cancellations can become effective. For example, the commercial agreement with Russia will not be considered terminated until December 23. Termination arrangements are provided in the agreements themselves and vary from one to another.

Officials here made it clear that, barring some change in the basic political relationships between the U.S. and the Soviet-dominated countries, further trade benefits will be denied them as soon as each agreement has been terminated.

Pa. Police Chiefs Select Officers

Philadelphia, Aug. 2 (AP) — Frank Sweeney of Jenkintown has succeeded Joseph Mock of Larksville as president of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police association.

Other officers installed yesterday at the final session of the three day convention: Chris Keisling, Carnegie; John Watahovich, Freeland, and Andrew J. Desmond, Chester, vice presidents; John S. Good, Williamsport, treasurer, and F. B. Titus, Lansdowne, secretary.

Desmond at the final meeting said the Federal Bureau of Investigation has noted an increase in sex crimes. He noted an FBI estimate that 360,000 sex crimes were committed in the country since 1950 and only about one in 20 was reported to authorities.

United Nations, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP) — The United Nations will go to the rescue if Russia attacks Yugoslavia, Chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin says. Austin told news correspondents taking part in the radio-television show "United—Or Not?" (ABC) Monday night that such support for Yugoslavia would come under the "peace through deeds" resolution adopted by the General Assembly last fall.

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — The Atomic Energy commission disclosed Tuesday it is developing new but secret sites to "store" atomic weapons—and is planning "much more frequent" test blasts. Word of the new storage sites came out of a news conference held in connection with AEC's tenth semi-annual report to Congress made public today.

WOMEN'S BRIDGE TITLES DECIDED

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP)—Mrs. Edward Minnear, of Danville, Ill., and Mrs. R. A. Dunphy, of Salem, N. J. early today won the national women's championship title in the summer National Contract Bridge tournament of the American Contract Bridge league. Their score was 562 points.

The national men's title was won by Alexander Nusinoff, of New York city, and Cliff Bishop, of Detroit, with a score of 579½ points.

Today the tourney swings into its master pairs play, with a record-smashing 256 entries. Later in the day, play in the master teams division opens. About 80 teams, usually of five persons each, are expected to enter. Master pairs play will end Sunday after a four-session game. Master teams play will continue until Tuesday.

In the women's championship second place went to Mrs. Frank Fooshe and Mrs. Henry C. Wolfe, both of Washington. They scored 546½ points.

Harrisburgers Third

Mrs. R. F. S. Harris and Mrs. Peggy Adams, both of New York finished third with 538½, followed by Mrs. Jean Ellis, Washington and Mrs. Sam Neuwrith, Deal, N. J.

Two young boys from Chicago, Emanuel Hochfeld and Milton Ellenby were second in the men's division, with 572½, followed by Charles J. Solomon and Simon Becker, both of Philadelphia with 563.

Alfred Sheinwold and Leonard B. Harmon, both of New York, took fourth place in the final field of 108 pairs, which had been reduced from original entries of 176 pairs.

The national mixed team-of-four championship went to four New Yorkers, Richard Kahn, Miss Ruth Sherman, Leo Roet and Mrs. Lewis M. Jaeger, who nosed out Charles H. Goren, Philadelphia, Mrs. Helen Sobel and Myron Field, New York, and Mrs. Ralph W. Gordon, Buffalo, N. Y. by a half a match.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Kunkle, Harrisburg, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Glick, Miami, Fla., finished third, in a record field of 85 teams.

Los Angeles, Aug. 2 (AP) — A matter of $925,000 in bail keeps 12 indicted California Communists in jail today.

There attorneys are figuring out ways and means to get the prescribed bail reduced so they can be free pending trial but haven't announced what steps they propose to take. Four are held here, seven in San Francisco, all under $75,000 bond each, and one in New York under $100,000 bail.

Harrisburg, Aug. 2 (AP)—A standardized driver-training program for public schools throughout the commonwealth has been approved by the State Senate. The plan was embodied in three bills, all previously passed the House. The Senate sent two of the measures to the governor. A third was returned to the House for action on a minor amendment.

Washington, Aug. 2 (AP) — A former Russian genreal testified Tuesday that in the early 1930's the head of the Soviet intelligence referred to Owen Lattimore and Joseph Barnes as "our men." Alexander Barmine, now head of the Russian unit of the State Department's Voice of America, gave the testimony to the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. Barmine said he was supplying arms to a western China province in 1933 while serving as a Russian intelligence officer.

Planes flying the India-China "hump" in World War II used three tons of gasoline for every ton they transported.

Flies have been captured up to 12 miles away from the place where they were "tagged" with radioactive material.
